TROUBLE on Tularoosa Creek A warning to send cold fear along the spine of any man who was raised in that isolated back country called Canaan that lies between Tularoosa and Black River to send him racing back to that swamp bordered region wherever the word might reach him It was only a whisper from the withered lips of a shuffling black crone who vanished among the throng before I could seize her but it was enough No need to seek confirmation no need to inquire by what mysterious black folk way the word had come to her No need to inquire what obscure forces worked to unseal those wrinkled lips to a Black River man It was enough that the warning had been given and understood
