

Candide Quiz Study Guide:

Chapter 1:

- candide is in love with his cousin Cunegonde
- candide, Cunegonde, and the baron's son are all tutored by Pangloss (an optimist, believes every occurrence is for the best)
- she decides she wants to kiss him, and her father sees and has candide thrown out of the castle
- candide comes from Latin word candidis which means white or pure, which means he is naïve
- Pangloss, candide tutor, Greek means all tongue or all talk
- work of satire to criticize people or society. Voltaire attacks the hierarchy

Chapter 2:

- candide is broke and homeless, and a man buys him dinner which is proof of Pangloss theory that everything happens for the best
- the men are actually recruiting him for the Bulgur army
- he is clueless that he is actually in the army, and he talks a walk and dragged back to camp and is forced to choose between flogging or being shot in the head
- he chooses flogging but begs to be killed before his punishment is over, the bulgur king appears and pardons him
- candides naïvete are tied to Pangloss teachings as he accepts the world at face value, when the nice men offer him money, he doesn't think he has to pay them back. He thinks that it will all work out in the end because it is God's will
- Voltaire shows that those who only believe in the philosophy of existence, don't have a good grasp of what real life is actually life
- Candide's chose of punishment makes a mockery of free will, the choose between an over-the-top beating or sudden death

Chapter 3:

- He sees the brutality of war, women raped
- He makes it to Holland but is out of supplies, he heard that everyone is rich and Christian so thinks they will help, he begs for assistance and is told he will be thrown in jail if he continues
- a preacher on the street asks him if he thinks the "pope is the antichrist" and candide says he hasn't heard that but needs food
- the man yells at him and his wife empties a chamber pot on his head
- he is finally taken in by Anabaptist, a member of a protestant religious group that believes only adults should be baptized, and he gives him food, money and a promise of a job, which to him further proves Pangloss theory that everything happens for the best
- he meets a beggar covered in sores
- Voltaire was mad that laws overlooked slavery, and sexual assault and was disgusted by the prejudice of religion
- despite identifying with Christian practices and ideals, the preacher on street refuses to help, whereas the Anabaptist shows mercy to him and helps – their acceptance of other religions earned Voltaire's approval
