Context And Pretext In Conflict Resolution Culture Identity Power And Practice:

Context and Pretext in Conflict Resolution Kevin Avruch, 2015-11-17 Written by a distinguished scholar this book explores themes of culture identity and power as they relate to conceptions of practice in conflict resolution and peacebuilding Among the topics covered are ethnic and identity conflicts culture relativism and human rights post conflict trauma and reconciliation and modeling varieties of conflict resolution practice Context and Pretext in Conflict Resolution is the winner of the 2014 Conflict Research Society Book of the Year Prize

International Organizations and Post-Soviet Conflicts in Georgia, Moldova, and Ukraine Nina Lutterjohann, 2024-08-06 International Organizations and Post Soviet Conflicts in Georgia Moldova and Ukraine The Limitations of Imagining Peace and the Failure and Success in Negotiations addresses the protracted history of international conflict resolution efforts to the Georgian Abkhaz Moldovan Transnistrian and Eastern Ukraine conflicts The author explores the origins and onset of these first two conflicts in the early 1990s but also looks at the eruption of conflict in Eastern Ukraine in 2014 and at the first months after the Russian invasion of Ukraine in 2022 This book shows how from a conflict transformation perspective local vested interests and strategic interests have created obvious obstructions that have both fueled the conflicts and prevented their resolution This volume develops a comprehensive theoretical framework for understanding the success and failure of international engagement that offers a new understanding of the extent to which international responses may or may not be helpful Through an analysis of over 500 closed source documents and about 70 interviews the efforts of pan European international organizations with mandates from the OSCE EU UN and NATO are examined on both political and cultural levels This work s innovative analyses of those institutions performances shows how successes have often been overlooked and identifies misperceptions that reshape our understanding of the limitations to imagining peace

Cultural Encounters and Emergent Practices in Conflict Resolution Capacity-Building Tamra Pearson d'Estrée, Ruth J. Parsons, 2018-05-31 Undoubtedly the most comprehensive analysis of the role of culture and emergent practices in capacity building currently at hand d Estrée and Parsons have produced a commendable amalgamation and scrutiny of local cultural and Indigenous mediation practices in a number of contexts that empower local people while interacting and integrating with Western mediation models in a blend of hybridity The book is beautifully structured and will attract a wide readership including graduate and undergraduate students Sean Byrne Director Arthur V Mauro Centre for Peace Justice and Professor Peace Conflict Studies University of Manitoba Canada Since late 1990s conflict resolution field has recognized the need to integrate culture in its processes This book goes beyond such theoretical recognition and provides empirical evidence and solid concrete cases on how local actors from a wide range of cultural contexts integrated their cultural analysis and tools in their own sustainable conflict resolution processes It also offers an effective set of guidelines and lessons learned for policy makers and peacebuilding practitioners on the need to deepen their reliance on local cultural practices of peace Mohammed Abu Nimer Professor of International Peace and

Conflict Resolution School of International Service American University and Founder and Director of the Salam Peacebuilding and Justice Institute in Washington DC USA The evolving identities of communities impacted by deep historical divisions and population migration in the context of life threatening resource shortages present opportunities and challenges for conflict transformation professionals at every level d Estr e and Parsons respond to this challenge with a remarkable collection of stories from around the world that amplify the innovation in the field while capturing its history and complexity It serves as the bridge between mediation and peacebuilding that is so necessary today Prabha Sankaranarayan CEO Mediators Beyond Borders International In this excellent book Tamra Pearson d Estr e and Ruth Parsons and their impressive collection of case study authors have analysed four generations of conflict resolution transformation theory and practice They highlight the diverse ways in which the burgeoning field of conflict resolution theorists and practitioners mirrored the ascendance and now decline of the neo liberal western project First and second generation efforts were based on notions of possessive individualism rational choice theory and a general acceptance of the status quo Culture was ignored or eliminated as were deeper questions of political and social inequality But more importantly there was an unwillingness to consider the power and the wisdom that resided in locality Third and fourth generation conflict transformers on the other hand have engaged these deeper questions and focused more attention on emancipatory creative partnerships social and economic justice co learning and hybridised models flowing from external engagement with local wisdom This is a book that needs to be read by anyone interested in the transformative power of conflict resolution and long term social and political change Kevin P Clements Professor Chair and Foundation Director The National Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies University of Otago New Zealand While waves of scholarship have focused either on the value of presumed universal models or of traditional practices of conflict resolution curiously missing has been the recognition and analysis of the actual intermingling and interacting of western and local cultural practices that have produced new and emergent practices in our global community In this compilation of case studies the authors describe partnerships forged between local practice expertise and bearers of western institutional models to build innovative approaches to mediation and conflict resolution Including stories of these experiences and the resulting hybrid models that emerged the book explores central questions of cultural variation and integration such as the perception of purpose and function of resolution processes attitudes toward conflict arenas and timeframes third party roles barriers to process use as well as how to remain true to culture and context It also examines partnership dynamics and lessons learned for modern cross cultural collaboration Routledge
