Curriculum Theorizing The Reconceptualists:

Curriculum Theorizing William F. Pinar, 1975 Understanding Curriculum William F. Pinar, 1995 Perhaps not since Ralph Tyler's 1949 Basic Principles of Curriculum and Instruction has a book communicated the field as completely as Understanding Curriculum. From historical discourses to breaking developments in feminist poststructuralist and racial theory including chapters on political theory phenomenology aesthetics theology international developments and a lengthy chapter on institutional concerns the American curriculum field is here. It will be an indispensable textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses alike.

Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies Craig Kridel, 2010-02-16 The Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies provides a comprehensive introduction to the academic field of curriculum studies for the scholar student teacher and administrator. The study of curriculum beginning in the early 20th century served primarily the areas of school administration and teaching and was seen as a method to design and develop programs of study. The field subsequently expanded to draw upon disciplines from the arts humanities and social sciences and to examine larger educational forces and their effects upon the individual society and conceptions of knowledge. Curriculum studies has now emerged to embrace an expansive and contested conception of academic scholarship while focusing upon a diverse and complex dynamic among educational experiences practices settings actions and theories in relation to personal and institutional needs and interests. The Encyclopedia of Curriculum Studies serves to inform and to introduce terms events documents biographies and concepts to assist the reader in understanding aspects of this rapidly changing field of study. Representative topics include Origins definitions dimensions and variations on Curriculum Studies Curriculum development and design for schools Curricular purpose implementation and evaluation Contemporary issues e.g. standards tests and accountability Curricular dimensions of teaching and teacher education Interdisciplinary perspectives on institutionalized curriculum Informal curricula of homes mass media workplaces organizations and relationships Impact of race class gender health belief appearance place ethnicity language Relationships of curriculum and poverty wealth and related factors Modes of curriculum inquiry and research Curriculum as cultural studies exploring the formation of identities and possibilities Corporate state church and military influence as curriculum Global and international perspectives on curriculum Curriculum organizations journals and resources Summaries of books and articles on curriculum studies Biographic vignettes of key persons in curriculum studies Relevant photographs

The Journal of Curriculum Theorizing, 1987 Key Concepts for Understanding Curriculum: Planning, management, and ideology Colin J. Marsh, 1997 Each chapter of this book is devoted to a separate concept which is analyzed in terms of its major features. Follow up questions at the end of each chapter are designed to challenge the reader to reflect further on the specific issues raised.

Handbook of Research on the Education of School Leaders Michelle D. Young, Gary M. Crow, 2016-08-19 The Handbook of Research on the Education of School Leaders brings together empirical research on leadership preparation and development to provide a comprehensive overview and synthesis of what we know about preparing school leaders today With contributions from the field s foremost scholars this new edition investigates the methodological foundations of leadership preparation research reviews the pedagogical and curricular features of preparation programs and presents valuable insights into the demographic economic and political factors affecting school leaders This volume both mirrors the first edition s macro level approach to leadership preparation and presents the most up to date research in the field Updates to this edition cover recent state and federal government efforts to improve leadership in education new challenges for the field and significant gaps and critical questions for framing researching evaluating and improving the education of school leaders Sponsored by the University Council of Educational Administration UCEA this handbook is an essential resource for students and scholars of educational leadership as well as practitioners policymakers and other educators interested in professional leadership

Duoethnography Joe Norris, Richard D Sawyer, Darren Lund, 2016-09-16 Duoethnography is a collaborative research methodology in which two or more researchers juxtapose their life histories in order to provide multiple understandings of a social phenomenon Using their own biographies as sites of research and creating dialogic narratives they provide multiple perspectives of this phenomenon for the reader inviting the viewer to enter the conversation The dialectic process of creating duoethnography is also designed to be transformative to the writers In this volume two dozen scholars present the first wave of duoethnographic writings on topics as diverse as gender identity and curriculum with the editors framing key tenets of the methodology around the studies presented This participatory emancipatory methodology is of interest to those doing qualitative research and narrative writing in many disciplines

Key Concepts for Understanding the Curriculum Colin J. Marsh, 2018-10-24 Each chapter of this book is devoted to a separate concept which is analyzed in terms of its major features Follow up questions at the end of each chapter are designed to challenge the reader to reflect further on the specific issues raised

Encyclopedia of Educational Reform and Dissent Thomas C. Hunt, 2010-01-20 The history of American education is replete with educational reform and to a lesser extent educational dissent Consider the present you have various forms of privatization school choice the No Child Left Behind act home schooling value added accountability alternative teacher preparation programs on line instruction etc This range of activity is not exceptional For instance consider the past progressive education open education the junior high school the middle school Life Adjustment education career education vocational education the comprehensive high school school to work year round schooling behavioral objectives proficiency exams high stakes testing whole language learning packages and self paced instruction modular scheduling site based management all presented as the way to reform American schools at least in part Then you have the reformers themselves such as John Dewey George Counts Herbert Kohl John Holt Charles Silberman Admiral Hyman Rickover James Bryant Conant all the way back to Horace Mann himself Dissenters and dissenting movements while not as numerous and certainly not as well known in educational circles count the various faith based schools and individuals such as Archbishop Hughes of New York Clearly this is an area rich in ideas rife with controversy and vital in its outcome for individuals and the nation as a whole And yet strangely enough there exists no major encyclopedia bringing the varied strands together in one place as a ready reference for scholars teachers school administrators and students studying to enter the educational profession This two volume work is intended to be that authoritative resource Key themes and topics include biographies of reformers and dissenters theoretical and ideological perspectives key programs and legislation judicial verdicts impacting educational change in America the politics and processes of educational reform and policy making dissent and resistance to reform technology s impact on educational reform A Reader s Guide in the front matter groups entries around such themes to help readers find related entries more easily
