Classical Arabic Biography Classical Arabic Biography:

Classical Arabic Biography Michael Cooperson, 2000-05-25 Pre modern Arabic biography has served as a major source for the history of Islamic civilization In this 2000 study exploring the origins and development of classical Arabic biography Michael Cooperson demonstrates how Muslim scholars used the notions of heirship and transmission to document the activities of political scholarly and religious communities The author also explains how medieval Arab scholars used biography to tell the life stories of important historical figures by examining the careers of the Abbasid Caliph al Ma mun the Shiite Imam Ali al Rida the Sunni scholar Ahmad Ibn Hanbal and the ascetic Bishr al Hafi each of whom represented a tradition of political and spiritual heirship to the Prophet Drawing on anthropology and comparative religion as well as history and literary criticism the book considers how each figure responded to the presence of the others and how these responses were preserved by posterity

Classical Arabic Biography Michael Cooperson, 2000 In the first book length study to explore the origins of classical Arabic biography the author demonstrates how Muslim scholars used notions of heirship and transmission to document the activities of political scholarly and religious communities The author illustrates his argument by analysing four figures whose biographies exemplify a particular tradition

The Heirs of the Prophets in Classical Arabic Biography Michael David Cooperson, 1994 The Author and His Doubles Abdelfattah Kilito, 2001-11-01 Michael Cooperson's translation makes Abdelfattah Kilito's masterpiece available to English speaking audiences for the first time Called the most inventive and provocative critic of Arabic literature writing in the Middle East today Kilito opens our perception with the same breadth of vision seeking to define the traditional and historical forces that bind one writer to another and that inextricably link an author to a text This volume benefits from Cooperson's accomplished translation While rigorously precise it also allows the wit and humor and the lyricism of Kilito's prose full expression Drawing on major themes of classical Arabic literature the essays use simple poetic language to argue that genre not authorship is the single most important feature of classical works Kilito discusses love poetry and panegyric the Prophet's Hadith and the literary anecdote as well as offering novel readings of recurrent themes such as memorization plagiarism forgery and dream visions of the dead

Al-Ma'mun Michael Cooperson, 2012-12-01 This accessible biography treats al Ma mun 786-833 as the product of his age which was a formative period in the development of Islamic law and theology It presents him in his many facets rebel rationalist scientist poet politician warrior inquisitor and self proclaimed defender of the faith Drawing on contemporary sources some friendly and others hostile it offers a comprehensive portrait of a fascinating figure in Islamic history

Arabesques Ibrahim A. Mumayiz, 2006 Inleiding tot en vertalingen van klassieke Arabische dichters Medieval Islamic Historiography Heather N. Keaney, 2013-07-18 This book is a comparative analysis of the medieval Sunni historiography of the caliphate of Uthman b Affan and the revolt against him By comparing treatments of Uthman in pietistic literature and universal chronicles the work traces the gradual silencing of more critical accounts in favor of those that portray Uthman as a saintly companion of the Prophet Muhammad Through a comparative analysis of authors between genres and time periods this book shows how authors were able to convey their personal perspectives on important religious and political tensions that emerged through the revolt against Uthman namely the tension between Sunnis and Shiis religious and political authority and appeals to maintain stability and unity vs appeals for greater justice This last debate which in many ways began with the revolt against Uthman has been repeated most recently in the Arab Spring This work therefore provides readers with helpful historical context for important contemporary debates

Spiritual Purification in Islam Gavin Picken, 2011-03-21

Purification of the soul is a principle that is central to understanding Islamic spirituality but despite this relatively little has been written explicitly in the Islamic tradition regarding this discrete method of spiritual purification This book examines the work of a scholar of this discipline al-Harith al-Muhasibi who lived and worked during the classical Islamic period under the Abbasids Although al-Muhasibi was well known for his skills in many disciplines including the Qur'an Prophetic narration and scholastic theology it is his mastery in the field of Islamic spirituality and moral psychology for which he is best remembered Assessing the extent to which the political social and economic factors played a part in his life and work Gavin Picken provides a comprehensive overview of his work and its great significance in the development of Islamic spirituality Reconstructing his life in chronological order and providing the most comprehensive appraisal of his works to date it explores a facet of al-Muhasibi's teaching which as yet has not been studied namely his understanding concept and methodology regarding the purification of the soul within the Islamic paradigm As such it will be of great interest not only to researchers and students of Sufism but also to scholars of comparative spirituality and mysticism
