A Terrible Village Poisoning Hannah Hendy, 2023-02-23 The local mayor has a dinner date with death With school out for the summer Margery and Clementine Butcher Baker are taking advantage of the break to go on holiday They plan to explore the village of St Martins on the Water and rest before the chaos of Mrs Smith s impending hen do By the end of their first night the local mayor lies dead on the floor of the hotel restaurant having been poisoned by his meal The villagers are convinced The Poisoner is back As the residents turn to the duo with suspicion and begin to freeze them out Margery and Clementine are left with more questions than answers Everyone is convinced that the pair and Clementine in particular are bad news but why And as more people in the village start to become unwell the question remains is The Poisoner back or is this the work of a new killer And will they strike again A charming cosy mystery that will make you laugh out loud perfect for fans of Julia Chapman and Fiona Leitch Praise for A Terrible Village Poisoning A Terrible Village Poisoning is a really great cosy whodunnit The plot had me guessing right to the end and the cast of characters so warm and vivid were an absolute joy I m really looking forward to the next one Ian Moore author of Death and Croissants A favourite series of mine Hendy has written a great mystery with the perfect blend of suspects clues and red herrings that you ll be scratching your head till the end Highly recommend Reader review An enjoyable light hearted read I love Clementine and her dry wit and humour and Margery is the perfect partner for her The characters are so well written that they are really easy to picture in the mind s eye Reader review I am absolutely in love with the series it made me laugh out loud Margery and Clem are a delight Can t wait for book four Reader review This cozy crime was a perfect read on a cold day snuggled under a blanket and drinking hot tea I really enjoy this I loved Margery and Clementine Reader review Another excellent adventure Reader review I m a massive fan of Clementine and Margery if ever I needed a crime solved I would definitely call on these two This book had so many twists and turns and it definitely did keep me guessing till the end I would definitely recommend it to anyone who is a fan of cosy crime and classic murder mysteries Reader review It was lovely to be with Margery Clementine and the gang a quick read with an easy going storyline that comes to a satisfying conclusion Reader review Loving the dinner lady detectives they are fantastic This instalment won t leave fans disappointed because the ladies are back to mischief a great fun filled read highly recommended Reader review Margery and Clementine are so loveable and they always make me smile and warm my heart This was another fun entertaining cosy mystery Reader review

A Frightfully Fatal Affair Hannah Hendy,2023-10-05 Cloaked strangers and danger abound Margery and Clementine Butcher Baker are coming to the end of another busy half term as dinner ladies at Summerview Secondary school The school is abuzz with chatter about the upcoming break the local harvest festival and the fact that maths teacher Mr Weaver hasn t turned up to work in days When the pair embark on an evening walk they discover Mr Weaver s body in the woods with a mysterious symbol painted on the tree beside him Something suspicious is clearly afoot As the nights grow darker and the mysterious symbols continue to appear around Dewstow the Dinner Lady Detectives are pulled deeper into the case Can they solve the mystery as deceit and chaos reigns or will their killer pull off another deadly trick A fun and charming cosy mystery perfect for fans of J M Hall and Fiona Leitch Praise for Hannah Hendy Hannah is at the top of the tree of modern whodunnits

The characters bar none are real the settings are glorious and the plots are devilishly clever Ian Moore author of Death and Croissants Who knew being a dinner lady could be so dangerous but so much fun With a plot that s twistier than school dinner spag bol Clem and Margery are the only school dinner ladies guaranteed to give you belly laughs rather than indigestion Fiona Leitch author of The Cornish Village Murder Hendy is by far one of the very best cosy writers we have and A Frightfully Fatal Affair sees her on sparkling form Jonathan Whitelaw author of The Bingo Hall Detectives Twisty delightful and laugh out loud funny I fell in love with Margery and Clementine from the first page Antony Johnston author of The Dog Sitter Detective on The Dinner Lady Detectives I really enjoyed this a terrific zesty look at the dark underside of a modern day secondary school J M Hall author of A Spoonful of Murder A captivating murder mystery Women s Own Great to catch up with the dinner ladies and their detective skills A fantastic read roll on the next instalment Reader review This sucked me in from the beginning with its relatable characters and really original plot I will be reading more by Hannah Hendy for sure I love her writing style Reader review The characters and descriptions are well written It s a fast paced and easy to read book I was surprised by the ending I will be recommending this book Reader review I love this series and I have a rather big soft spot for Clementine and Margery This book has the right mix of mystery laughs and murder If you are a fan of murder mysteries and cosy crime then please give this series a go Reader review It was hard to put this one down before I turned that last page A really good cozy I ll be back for more in this series Reader review

The Case of the Curious Cook Cathy Ace,2017-03-01 A new case for the ladies of the WISE enquiries agency Henry Devereaux Twyst eighteenth Duke of Chellingworth is terribly worried about some water damage to the priceless books in his lower library so retains the services of a local book restorer to tackle much needed repairs The antiquarian also runs the Crooks and Cooks bookshop with his daughter local TV celebrity chef The Curious Cook When the book restorer mentions some strange shenanigans going on at the book shop Dowager Duchess Althea brings the case to her colleagues at the WISE Enquiries Agency As the WISE women try to unravel one puzzle from their base at stately Chellingworth Hall they then get embroiled in another when they come across a valuable book of miniatures which seems to be the work of a local famous artist murdered by her own brother Are the cases linked and why do both mysteries lead to a nearby old folks home The WISE women are on the case and nothing will get in their way Or will it
