Climate Change 2007: Mitigation of Climate Change. Working Group III Contribution to the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change Fourth Assessment Report: Summary for Policymakers

Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), 2007 Smart Solutions to Climate Change Bjørn Lomborg, 2010-09-09 The failure of the Copenhagen climate conference in December 2009 revealed major flaws in the way the world's policymakers have attempted to prevent dangerous levels of increases in global temperatures The expert authors in this specially commissioned collection focus on the likely costs and benefits of a very wide range of policy options including geo engineering mitigation of CO₂ methane and black carbon expanding forest research and development of low carbon energy and encouraging green technology transfer For each policy authors outline all of the costs benefits and likely outcomes in fully referenced clearly presented chapters accompanied by shorter critical alternative perspectives To further stimulate debate a panel of economists including three Nobel laureates evaluate and rank the attractiveness of the policies This authoritative and thought provoking book will challenge readers to form their own conclusions about the best ways to respond to global warming

Energy Flows, Material Cycles and Global Development Georg Schaub, Thomas Turek, 2016-06-27 This book starts by discussing the global flows of energy and materials and changes caused by human activities It then examines the limitations of anthropogenic energy and material flows and the consequences for the development of human society Different scenarios for lifestyle patterns are correlated with the future development of the global energy supply and climate As it provides a process engineering approach to the Earth system and global development readers should have a basic understanding of mathematics physics chemistry and biology This second edition also reflects new developments since the original publication increases in anthropogenic energy and material flows due to significant economic growth in certain parts of the world and recent changes in energy policy and technological development countries such as Germany the Energiewende or transition to renewable energy sources where goals have been defined and measures initiated for a future energy supply without fossil and nuclear sources As such it offers a valuable resource for undergraduate and graduate students as well as practicing experts alike

Regime Interaction and Climate Change Beatriz Martinez Romera, 2017-12-06 The regulation of greenhouse gas emissions from international aviation and maritime transport has proved to be a difficult task for international climate negotiations such as the Paris Agreement in 2015 Almost two decades prior Article 2 2 of the Kyoto Protocol excluded emissions from international aviation and maritime transport from its targets delegating the negotiation of sector specific regulations to the International Civil Aviation Organization ICAO and the International Maritime Organization IMO respectively However progress at these venues has also been limited Regime Interaction and Climate Change maps out the legal frameworks in the Climate ICAO and IMO regimes and explores the law making process for the regulation of international aviation and maritime transport through the lenses of fragmentation of international law and regime interaction The book sheds light on how interaction between these three regimes occurs what the consequences of such interaction are and how they can be managed to resolve conflicts and promote synergies This book will be of great interest to scholars of international environmental law and governance climate change policy and climate change law

Legislative Proposals to Reduce Greenhouse Gas Emissions United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Energy and Air Quality, 2008 Examines H R 1590 the Safe Climate Act of 2007 H R 6186 the Investing in Climate Action and Protection Act S 2191 America's Climate Security Act of 2008 Senate amendment 4825 introduced by Senator Boxer as a substitute during Floor consideration of the Lieberman Warner measure and S 1766 the Low Carbon Economy Act of 2007 P 2

Protecting the Global Environment Gary C Bryner, 2015-11-17 Gary Bryner's brief readable capstone book Features a forward by Mark A Boyer Outlines the major environmental challenges facing the world today Applies international relations theory to these challenges Covers such key topics as development sustainability and market capitalism Offers a social justice perspective to environmental problems and solutions Borne of an amalgam of social science fieldwork and a passionate commitment to justice this book brings debates about climate change to a new level compelling readers and researchers to rethink the reasons for reversing global environmental trends The book lays out three inspirations for improving environmental prospects effective markets sustainable development and environmental justice for the most vulnerable It also projects three possible scenarios flowing from the success or failure of these inspirations one bleak one breakthrough and one of status quo Gary Bryner is not sanguine about humanity's ability to make the right choices but this does not deter him from asking us to think beyond our own generation and our own species in urging environmental action now

Climate Change 2007 - Impacts, Adaptation and Vulnerability Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change. Working Group II., 2007 The Climate Change 2007 volumes of the Fourth Assessment Report of the Intergovernmental Panel
