Sexual Predation and TEFL Vaughan Rapatahana,2024-12-16 Teaching English as a Foreign Language TEFL enables sexual predation across the wide range of activities and locales it encompasses beyond schools and inclusive of voluntourist and aid programmes where EFL is taught This predation is carried out not only by male Native speaking English Teachers NETs on their students peers and members of local communities but also carried out on female NETs and EFL students by locals Is TEFL inherently sexist utilising gender biased texts This book is the first to examine in considerable detail such English language sexual imperialism and to suggest ways to curtail it Borneo Bulletin Brunei Yearbook ,2007

Southeast Asian Personalities of Chinese Descent Leo Suryadinata,2012 This is a bold project recording the lives of a particular group of Southeast Asians Most of the people whose biographies are included here have settled down in the ten countries that constitute the region Each of them has either self identified as Chinese or is comfortable to be known as someone of Chinese ancestry There are also those who were born in China or elsewhere who came here to work and do business including seeking help from others who have ethnic Chinese connections With the political and economic conditions of the region in a great state of flux for the past two centuries it is impossible to find consistency in the naming process Confucius had stressed that correct names make for the best relationships In this case Professor Leo Suryadinata has been pursuing for decades the elusive goal of finding the right name to give to the large numbers of people who have in one way or another made their homes in or made some difference to Southeast Asia I believe that when he and his colleagues selected the biographies to be included here they have taken a big step towards the rectification of identities for many leading personalities In so doing he has done us all a great service Professor Wang Gungwu National University of Singapore Travellers' Tales Roderick Neilsen, 2009-01-14 Most of the research into ELT has focused on its linguistic and methodological aspects which are based on Western scientific traditions The contributions and experiences of English language teachers themselves especially their work in overseas contexts have frequently been overlooked This volume aims to document the complexity of ELT as work in new global economic and cultural conditions and to explore how this complexity is realised in the everyday experiences of ELT teachers The development of ELT from the colonial experience to its current status as a global commodity is explored ELT is then situated in the discourses of globalisation specifically within Appadurai s theorisation of global flows of people images ideas technology and money or scapes Within this framework narratives are constructed from the experiences of Native speaking English teachers These reveal much about the personal pedagogical and cultural dimensions of ELT work in non Centre countries and will contribute to a greater understanding of the intercultural dimensions of ELT for all those who work in it and in related educational fields
