Sovereign Attachments Shenila Khoja-Moolji,2021-06-15 Sovereign Attachments rethinks sovereignty by moving it out of the exclusive domain of geopolitics and legality and into cultural religious and gender studies Through a close reading of a stunning array of cultural texts produced by the Pakistani state and the Pakistan based Taliban Shenila Khoja Moolji theorizes sovereignty as an ongoing attachment that is negotiated in public culture Both the state and the Taliban recruit publics into relationships of trust protection and fraternity by summoning models of Islamic masculinity mobilizing kinship metaphors and marshalling affect In particular masculinity and Muslimness emerge as salient performances through which sovereign attachments are harnessed The book shifts the discussion of sovereignty away from questions about absolute dominance to ones about shared repertoires entanglements and co constitution

French Women in Politics: Writing Power Raylene L. Ramsay,2003 Although more women in France have entered political life than ever before the fact remains that there are fewer women representatives in the French parliament than there were after the Second World War In a new and original approach the author presents an overview and analysis of the emerging body of text by or on women who have held high political office in France The argument is that writing about women and politics has not just described or reflected women s slow but now substantial entry into political life it has played a major part in shaping the parity debate and its outcomes Interviews with political women such as Huguette Bouchardeau Simone Veil or Edith Cresson inserted in the text demonstrate the emergence and circulation of a new common discourse focused on the issue of whether women in politics make or should make a difference A close reading of the various texts examined in this book and their connection to new public counter discourses in France suggest that a re writing of power is indeed occurring
