Daumier Verslaggever Van Zijn Tijd 1832-1872:

Daumier Drawings Colta Feller Ives, Margret Stufmann, Martin Sonnabend, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1992 By combining Daumier's drawings with selected examples of his paintings, prints and bronzes this book traces the evolution of the artist's succinct and emphatically expressive style from its roots in the European tradition exemplified by Rembrandt, Rubens and Fragonard to its modern manifestations in the works of Degas, Cézanne, Toulouse-Lautrec and Beckmann. In the course of his long and productive career Daumier returned again and again to favorite themes often after considerable lapses of time. Thus the works here are grouped by their subject matter into six sections: studies of individual figures and faces, narrative scenes inspired by history or literature, views of contemporary urban and domestic life, dramatic portrayals of lawyers in court, depictions of street performers and episodes in the wanderings of Don Quixote and Sancho Panza.

The Victoria and Albert Museum Elizabeth James, 2013-10-15 A comprehensive bibliography and exhibition chronology of the world's greatest museum of the decorative arts and design. The Victoria and Albert Museum or South Kensington Museum as it used to be known was founded by the British Government in 1852 out of the proceeds from the Great Exhibition of 1851. Like the Exhibition it aimed to improve the expertise of designers and the taste of the public by exposing them to examples of good design from all countries and periods. 2,500 publications have to date been produced by for or in association with the V&A. The National Art Library which is part of the Museum has prepared this detailed catalogue supplemented by a secondary list of 500 other books closely related to the V&A. The 1,500 exhibitions and displays recorded include those held in the main Museum and at its branches: the Bethnal Green Museum, now the National Museum of Childhood, and the Theatre Museum, Covent Garden, and additionally those it has organized at external venues in Great Britain and abroad. The exhibitions and publications are fully cross-referenced and there are name, title and subject indexes to the whole work as well as an explanatory introduction.
