Angewandte Volkstumsideologie James R. Dow, 2018-02-22 Im Jahr 1939 wurde die überwiegend deutschsprachige Bevölkerung Südtirols vor die Wahl gestellt entweder in Hitlers Deutsches Reich auszuwandern oder in Mussolinis faschistischem Italien zu verbleiben Viele wählten die Option für Deutschland ehe das Projekt Umsiedlung Südtirol 1943 infolge der Kriegsereignisse zusammenbrach In der überwiegend von Deutschsprachigen bewohnten Gottschee im heutigen Slowenien erfolgte ein ähnliches Umsiedlungsreferendum im Jahr 1941 Verantwortlich für die Umsiedlung sogenannter Volksdeutscher war Heinrich Himmler als Reichskommissar für die Festigung deutschen Volkstums. Ihm war auch die als nationalsozialistische Wissenschaftsorganisation etablierte Forschungs und Lehrgemeinschaft das Ahnenerbe der SS unterstellt, deren Aufgabe laut Satzung darin bestand, Raum, Geist und Tat des nordischen Indogermanentums zu erforschen und die Forschungsergebnisse lebendig zu gestalten und dem deutschen Volke zu vermitteln. Im Sinne dieses Mandats formierte das Ahnenerbe in Südtirol und der Gottschee sogenannte Kulturkommissionen, die untergliedert in volkskundliche und sprachwissenschaftliche Arbeitsgruppen bis 1943 umfangreiche Dokumentationen und Auswertungen angeblich nordisch-germanischer Kultur in den Umsiedlungsgebieten vornahm. James R. Dow liefert durch die vorliegende Monografie nicht nur eine erste zusammenfassende Darstellung und Evaluierung der Forschungsaktivitäten der Ahnenerbe-Kulturkommissionen anhand zahlreicher Fallbeispiele und Forscherbiografien, sondern zeigt auch eindringlich die auf sie einwirkenden Schatten einer pseudo- und populärwissenschaftlichen Junk Science auf, die ein buntes Spektrum von Hanns Hubrigers wirrer Weltelehre bis hin zu Hans F. K. Günthers NS-Rassenlehre umspannte.

Women and Death Helen Fronius, Anna Linton, 2008. Identifies and analyzes thematizations of women and death from the past five centuries, illuminating the present and recent past. The theme of women and death is pervasive in the German culture of the past five centuries. With the conviction that only an interdisciplinary approach can explore a typology as far-reaching and significant as this and in accordance with the feminist tenet that images are accountable for norms, this volume investigates how iconic representations of women and death came about and why they endure. Traditionally, representations of women as agents of death when they have been considered at all have been considered separately from women as victims, as though there was no shared thematic ground. Here, familiar depictions of female victims are examined alongside the more unsettling spectacle of women as killers, exposing cultural assumptions. Essays explore, among others, the themes of virgin sacrifice and female infanticides, Death and the Maiden in art, female vampires in literature, and women killers in the media. Others compare cultural practices such as female mourning across historical contexts, examining change and the reasons for it. The authors' judgments eschew the simplistic and programmatic, contributing not just to current research in German literature but also to understanding of cultural history in general. Contributors: Stephanie Knoll, Ruth B. Bottigheimer, Anna Linton, Bettina Bildhauer, Mary Lindemann, Helen Fronius, Anna Richards, Jürgen Barkhoff, Lawrence Kramer, Kathrin Hoffmann, Curtius Clare, Bielby, Gisela Ecker, Anna Linton. Linton is Lecturer in German at Kings College London, and Helen Fronius is an AHRC Research Fellow and College Lecturer at Exeter College Oxford.
