Daughters Of Absence Transforming A Legacy Of Loss

Joanna Beata Michlic

Daughters Of Absence Transforming A Legacy Of Loss:

Daughters of Absence Mindy Weisel, 2000 Creative daughters transform their parents Holocaust darkness into a celebration of life Children in the Holocaust and its Aftermath Sharon Kangisser Cohen, Eva Fogelman, Dalia Ofer, 2017-04-01 The testimonies of individuals who survived the Holocaust as children pose distinct emotional and intellectual challenges for researchers as now adult interviewees recall profound childhood experiences of suffering and persecution they also invoke their own historical awareness and memories of their postwar lives requiring readers to follow simultaneous disparate narratives This interdisciplinary volume brings together historians psychologists and other scholars to explore child survivors accounts With a central focus on the Kestenberg Holocaust Child Survivor Archive s over 1 500 testimonies it not only enlarges our understanding of the Holocaust empirically but illuminates the methodological theoretical and institutional dimensions of this unique form of historical record It's Absence, Presently John McGreal, 2016-04-20 It's Silence Soundly It's Nothing Seriously and It's Absence Presently continue The It Series published by Matador since The Book of It 2010 They constitute another stage in an artistic journey exploring the visual and audial dialectic of mark word and image that began over 25 years ago In their aesthetic form the books are a decentred trilogy united together in a new concept of The Bibliograph All three present this new aesthetic object which transcends the narrow limits of the academic bibliography The alphabetical works also share a tripartite structure and identical length The Bibliograph itself is characterised by its strategic place within each book as a whole as well as by the complex variations in meaning of the dominant motifs nothing ness absence and silence which recur throughout the alphabetical entries that constitute the elements of each text It's Nothing Seriously for example addresses the amusing paradox that so much continues to be written today about nothing The aleatory character of the entries in the texts encourage the modern reader to reflect on each theme and to read them in a new way The reader is invited as well to examine their various inter textual relations across given conventional boundaries in the arts and sciences at several levels of physical psychical social reproduction The Power of Witnessing Nancy R. Goodman, Marilyn B. Meyers, 2012-08-21 Witnessing comes in as many forms as the trauma that gives birth to it The Holocaust undeniably one of the greatest traumatic events in recent human history still resonates into the twenty first century The echoes that haunt those who survived continue to reach their children and others who did not share the experience directly In what ways is this massive trauma processed and understood both for survivors and future generations The answer as deftly illustrated by Nancy Goodman and Marilyn Meyers lies in the power of witnessing the act of acknowledging that trauma took place coupled with the desire to share that knowledge with others to build a space in which to reveal confront and symbolize it As the contributors to this book demonstrate testimonial writing and memoir artwork poetry documentary theater and even the simple recollection of a memory are ways that honor and serve as forms of witnessing Each chapter is a fusion of narrative and metaphor that exists as evidence of the living mind that emerges amid the dead spaces produced by mass trauma creating a revelatory transformational space for the terror of knowing and the possibility for affirmation of hope courage and endurance in the face of almost unspeakable evil Additionally the power of witnessing is extended from the Holocaust to contemporary instances of mass trauma and to psychoanalytic treatments proving its efficacy in the dyadic relationship of everyday practice for both patient and analyst The Holocaust is not an easy subject to approach but the intimate and personal stories included here add up to an act of witnessing in and of itself combining the past and the present and placing the trauma in the realm of knowing sharing and understanding

Contributors Harriet Basseches Elsa Blum Bridget Conley Zilkic Paula Ellman Susan Elmendorf George Halasz Geoffrey Hartman Renee Hartman Elaine Neumann Kulp Shabad Dori Laub Clemens Loew Gail Humphries Mardirosian Margit Meissner Henri Parens Arlene Kramer Richards Arnold Richards Sophia Richman Katalin Roth Nina Shapiro Perl Myra Sklarew Ervin Staub Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century Amy E. Randall,2021-12-16 Focusing on events in Rwanda Armenia and the former Yugoslavia as well as the Holocaust Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century investigates how historically and culturally specific ideas led to genocidal sexual violence Expert contributors also consider how these ideas in conjunction with issues relating to femininity masculinity and understandings of gendered identities contributed to perpetrators tools and strategies for ethnic cleansing and genocide The 2nd edition features Five brand new chapters which explore imperialism race gender and genocide the Cambodian genocide memory and intergenerational transmission of Holocaust trauma and genocide gender and memory in the Armenian case An extended and enhanced introduction which makes use of recent scholarship on gender and violence Historiographical and bibliographical updates throughout Key primary document excerpt from the 1948 UN Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Genocide Updated and revised in its second edition Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century is the authoritative study on the complex gender dimensions of ethnic cleansing and genocide in the 20th century Disappearing Traces Dorota Glowacka,2012-10-01 In Disappearing Traces Dorota Glowacka examines the tensions between the ethical and aesthetic imperatives in literary artistic and philosophical works about the Holocaust in a search for new ways to understand the traumatic past and its impact on the present She engages with the work of leading 20th century philosophers and theorists including Levinas Benjamin Lyotard and Derrida to consider the role of language in the construction and transmission of traumatic memories the relation between self identity and the act of bearing witness and the ethical implications of representing trauma Glowacka s work draws on a wide range of discourses and disciplines bringing into conversation various genres of writing and artistic production It reveals the need to find innovative idioms and new means of engaging with the past and to create alliances between different disciplines and modes of representing the past that transform and transcend existing paradigms of representation Decentering Relational Theory Lewis Aron,Sue Grand,Joyce A. Slochower,2018-06-13 Decentering Relational Theory A Comparative Critique invites relational theorists to contemplate the

influence overlaps and relationship between relational theory and other perspectives Self critique was the focus of De Idealizing Relational Theory Decentering Relational Theory pushes critique in a different direction by explicitly engaging the questions of theoretical and clinical overlap and lack thereof with writers from other psychoanalytic orientations In part this comparison involves critique but in part it does not It addresses issues of influence both bidirectional and unidimensional Our authors took up this challenge in different ways Like our authors in De Idealizing writers who contributed to Decentering were asked to move beyond their own perspective without stereotyping alternate perspectives Instead they seek to expand our understanding of the convergences and divergences between different relational perspectives and those of other theories Whether to locate relational thought in a broader theoretical envelope make links to other theories address critiques leveled at us or push relational thinking forward our contributors thought outside the box The kinds of comparisons they were asked to make were challenging We are grateful to them for having taken up this challenge Decentering Relational Theory A Comparative Critique will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists across the theoretical spectrum

Memory Work Nina Fischer, 2015-09-27 Memory Work studies how Jewish children of Holocaust survivors from the English speaking diaspora explore the past in literary texts By identifying areas where memory manifests Objects Names Bodies Food Passover 9 11 it shows how the Second Generation engage with the pre Holocaust family and their parents survival

Etched in Flesh and Soul Batya Brutin, 2021-12-06 A series of numbers was tattooed on prisoners forearms only at one location the Auschwitz concentration camp complex Children parents grandparents mostly Jews but also a significant number of non Jews scarred for life Indelibly etched with a number into their flesh and souls constantly reminding them of the horrors of the Holocaust References to the Auschwitz number appear in artworks from the Holocaust period and onwards by survivors and non survivor artists and Jewish and non Jewish artists These artists refer to the number from Auschwitz to portray the Holocaust and its meaning This book analyzes the place that the image of the Auschwitz number occupies in the artist s consciousness and how it is grasped in the collective perception of different societies It discusses how the Auschwitz number is used in public and private Holocaust commemoration Additionally the book describes the use of the Auschwitz number as a Holocaust icon to protest warn and fight against Holocaust denial

Jewish Families in Europe, 1939-Present Joanna Beata Michlic, 2017-01-03 This book offers an extensive introduction and 13 diverse essays on how World War II the Holocaust and their aftermath affected Jewish families and Jewish communities with an especially close look at the roles played by women youth and children Focusing on Eastern and Central Europe themes explored include how Jewish parents handled the Nazi threat rescue and resistance within the Jewish family unit the transformation of gender roles under duress youth s wartime and early postwar experiences postwar reconstruction of the Jewish family rehabilitation of Jewish children and youth and the role of Zionism in shaping the present and future of young survivors Relying on newly available archival material and novel research in the areas of families youth rescue resistance gender and memory this volume will be an indispensable guide to current work on the familial and social history of the Holocaust
