David Goes To School Poem:

Poetry Goes to School David Booth, Bob Barton, 2003 This comprehensive resource is a must have for teachers who want to fill their classrooms with poetry With descriptions of poetic genres lessons and teaching tools sample poems and ideas for sharing and exploration this book will inspire inform and entertain Select from a wide range of response activities that will involve children in reading writing role playing and the arts Assessment techniques for supporting the poetry program complement this highly readable volume Stimulate creativity and imagination and learn to create a culture of poetry that demonstrates the power of words and strengthens the language lives of children After the Death of a Child Ann K. Finkbeiner, 2012-12-11 For a parent losing a child is the most devastating event that can occur Most books on the subject focus on grieving and recovery but as most parents agree there is no recovery from such a loss This book examines the continued love parents feel for their child and the many poignant and ingenious ways they devise to preserve the bond Through detailed profiles of parents Ann Finkbeiner shows how new activities and changed relationships with their spouse friends and other children can all help parents preserve a bond with the lost child Based on extensive interviews and grief research Finkbeiner explains how parents have changed five to twenty five years after the deaths of their children The first half of the book discusses the short and long term effects of the child's death on the parent's relationships with the outside world that is with their spouses other children friends and relatives The second half of the book details the effect on the parents internal world their continuing sense of guilt their need to place the death in some larger context and their inability sometimes to consistently do so their new set of priorities the nature of their bond with the lost child and the subtle and creative ways they have of continuing that bond Finkbeiner's central point is not so much how parents grieve for their children but how they love them Refusing to fall back on pop jargon about recovery or to offer easy solutions or standardized timelines Finkbeiner's is a genuine and moving search to come to terms with loss Her complex profiles of parents resonate with the honesty and authenticity of uncomfortable emotions expressed and most importantly shared with others experiencing a similar loss Finally each profile exemplifies the many heroic ways parents learn to live with their pain and by so doing honor the lives their children should have lived David Goes to School David Shannon, 2016-07-26 David's teacher has her hands full From running in the halls to chewing gum in class David's high energy antics fill each schoolday with trouble and are sure to bring a smile to even the best behaved reader Something Funny Happened at the Library Rob Reid, 2003 Offers strategies and resources for youth services librarians who want to introduce humor into their programs featuring tricks of the humor trade programming models and select bibliographies of humor books The Storytime Handbook Nina Schatzkamer Miller, 2014-01-23 Fresh fun ideas for children's storytime fill this book The author a long time storytime facilitator has put together 52 weekly themes plus additional plans for holidays all with detailed instructions for talking about the theme and choosing the books crafts songs poems games and snacks Each storytime idea is illustrated with photographs of a suggested craft and snack for easy reference Libraries bookstores preschools and parents alike can use this book to offer themed storytimes that include discussion literature art music movement and food Options are provided for each storytime so the ideas can be used year after year Reading Power Adrienne Gear,2013 School's Out ,2004 A wonderful collection with classic status featuring poems about schooldinners teachers bullies homework school outings reports and all other features of school life from acclaimed anthologist John Foster BLStrong fun new look reissued simultaneously in matching livery with Excuses Excuses and John s new book Our Teacher s Gone Bananas Story Times Good Enough to Eat! Melissa Rossetti Folini,2010-01-22 Learning and fun go hand in hand with these thematically organized story time programs that are linked to adorable edible crafts There are kids cookbooks and there are books with story time suggestions but no book has combined the two until now Story Times Good Enough to Eat Thematic Programs with Edible Story Crafts brings these elements together in programs that will engage kids and make every story time special Both a manual and a recipe book Story Times Good Enough to Eat offers thematic programs for major holidays and seasons and includes programs on popular animals and other themes as well It is designed to educate children by having them listen to the story then reinforcing the lessons of the story by creating an edible craft to go along with it Every theme in the book includes a suggested titles list a brief overview of the program and a complete recipe and instructions for making the corresponding snack craft from yummy school bus cupcakes to mouth watering sugar cookie sombreros for Cinco de Mayo

A War Guest in Canada W.A.B. Douglas,2023-09-12 During the Second World War hundreds of children were sent from the UK to stay with family and friends in Canada as war guests This book collects the letters of one such war guest young W A B Alec Douglas who wrote from his wartime home in Toronto to his mother back home in London Alec wrote home every week although sometimes he forgot to post his letters and they were delayed and some letters did not get through Occasionally his godmother and host Mavis Fry would add comments and write her own more detailed letters Also included are letters from Lillian Kingston who brought Alec to North America in 1940 This is a story of exposure at an impressionable age to ocean passage in wartime the sights and sounds of New York the totally new and unfamiliar world of Canada the wonderful excitement of passage home in a Woolworth Aircraft Carrier as a Guest of the Admiralty and his eventful return to a world he had left behind three years before A War Guest in Canada includes a foreword by Cynthia Comacchio and an introduction by Roger Sarty The Poems of David O Bruadair David O'Bruadair,1910
