America for Americans Erika Lee, 2019-11-26 This definitive history of American xenophobia is essential reading for anyone who wants to build a more inclusive society Ibram X Kendi New York Times bestselling author of How to Be an Antiracist The United States is known as a nation of immigrants But it is also a nation of xenophobia In America for Americans Erika Lee shows that an irrational fear hatred and hostility toward immigrants has been a defining feature of our nation from the colonial era to the Trump era Benjamin Franklin ridiculed Germans for their strange and foreign ways Americans anxiety over Irish Catholics turned xenophobia into a national political movement Chinese immigrants were excluded Japanese incarcerated and Mexicans deported Today Americans fear Muslims Latinos and the so called browning of America Forcing us to confront this history Lee explains how xenophobia works why it has endured and how it threatens America Now updated with an afterword reflecting on how the coronavirus pandemic turbocharged xenophobia America for Americans is an urgent spur to action for any concerned citizen

Ethnic Renewal in Philadelphia's Chinatown Kathryn

Wilson,2015-04-10 Philadelphia's Chinatown like many urban chinatowns began in the late nineteenth century as a refuge for immigrant laborers and merchants in which to form a community to raise families and conduct business But this enclave for expression identity and community is also the embodiment of historical legacies and personal and collective memories In Ethnic Renewal in Philadelphia's Chinatown Kathryn Wilson charts the unique history of this neighborhood After 1945 a new generation of families began to shape Chinatown's future As plans for urban renewal ranging from a cross town expressway and commuter rail in the 1960s to a downtown baseball stadium in 2000 were proposed and developed Save Chinatown activists rose up and fought for social justice Wilson chronicles the community's efforts to save and renew itself through urban planning territorial claims and culturally specific rebuilding She shows how these efforts led to Chinatown's growth and its continued ability to serve as a living community for subsequent waves of new immigration Teaching American History in a Global Context Carl J. Guarneri,Jim Davis,2015-07-17 This comprehensive resource is an invaluable teaching aid for adding a global dimension to students understanding of American history It includes a wide range of materials from scholarly articles and reports to original syllabi and ready to use lesson plans to guide teachers in enlarging the frame of introductory American history courses to an international view The contributors include well known American history scholars as well as gifted classroom teachers and the book's emphasis on immigration race and gender points to ways for teachers to integrate international and multicultural education America in the World and the World in America in their courses The book also includes a Views from Abroad section that examines problems and strategies for teaching American history to foreign audiences or recent immigrants A comprehensive annotated guide directs teachers to additional print and online resources Ethnic Conflicts and Civil Society Andreas Klinke,Ortwin Renn,Jean-Paul Lehnert,2018-02-05 This title was first published in 2000 The papers presented in this volume are based on the discussions of a workshop which asked how can ethnic and political cooperation be accomplished in ethnically and politically heterogeneous countries after the collapse of the communist regimes which left a void for nationalist and even chauvinist movements The objectives are to promote a better understanding of the contemporary ethnic conflicts and their social cultural and political causes to determine the historical structural and political developments that have led to or intensified these conflicts to analyze and develop positive role models for coping with such conflicts to provide constructive proposals for future conflict resolution mechanisms and to identify the crucial elements for building trust generating institutions on the basis of the civil society model The papers address ethnic conflicts in Eastern Europe with a particular focus on the former republics of Yugoslavia They aim to go beyond the analysis of causes and manifestations of such conflicts and to offer constructive ideas for the post Civil War period
