Feminist Posthumanisms, New Materialisms and Education Jessica Ringrose, Katie Warfield, Shiva Zarabadi, 2020-04-28 This edited collection is a careful assemblage of papers that have contributed to the maturing field within education studies that works with the feminist implications of the theories and methodologies of posthumanism and new materialism what we have also called elsewhere PhEmaterialism The generative questions for this collection are what if we locate education in doing and becoming rather than being And how does associating education with matter multiplicity and relationality change how we think about agency ontology and epistemology This collection foregrounds cutting edge educational research that works to trouble the binaries between theory and methodology It demonstrates new forms of feminist ethics and response ability in research practices and offers some coherence to this new area of research This volume will provide a vital reference text for educational researchers and scholars interested in this burgeoning area of theoretically informed methodology and methodologically informed theory The chapters in this book were originally published as articles in Taylor Francis journals

Common Core State Standards and the Speech-Language Pathologist Lissa A. Power-deFur, 2015-10-01 Common Core State Standards and the Speech Language Pathologist Standards Based Intervention for Special Populations is a tool for the analysis of the Common Core State Standards CCSS and the development of interventions to meet student specific needs The CCSS is an education initiative in the United States that details what K 12 students should understand in English language arts and mathematics by the end of each grade The initiative seeks to establish consistent education standards across the United States and ensure that graduating students are prepared to enter college or the workforce As of 2015 forty three states had adopted the CCSS With the implementation of the CCSS it is critical that speech language pathologists collaborate with educators to enable the success of students with communication disorders as well as English language learners This text offers a practical approach for application of the CCSS with a parallel analysis of children s strengths and needs to create a template for intervention It addresses strategies to facilitate the success of students in accessing and achieving the expectations of the general curriculum with a focus on students with communication disorders hearing loss vision loss deaf blindness specific learning disabilities autism multiple disabilities and English language learners Key features include Background and implications of the CCSS Chapters written by experts in the field Tools for analysis of the language expectations of the CCSS and a framework for aligning intervention both direct and classroom based with the CCSS for
