A 21st Century Plague Elayne Clift, 2021-06-07 It is more than a year since Covid 19 invaded our countries and our bodies causing us to long for the touch of loved ones to fight anxiety and despair and to adjust to the stunning effects of prolonged isolation We watched as the numbers of deaths mounted and agreed that it was the worst health crisis we'd experienced in a hundred years We saw pictures of those we'd lost and resisted having them treated as mere statistics What we longed for were stories about people lost to the insidious virus and those left behind We wanted stories of survival coping finding our way to the future We wanted stories that made us laugh weep empathize share sadness become better people ourselves That's because storytelling whether sung danced painted acted or written in prose and poetry is primal It s how we come to understand the world around us Stories give us wholeness and allow us to recover something vital and true in our lives Stories as writer Sue Monk Kidd knows are the life of the soul Telling and hearing stories of how we got through this dreadful pandemic is how we say what happened with empathy so that future generations will know what it was like to live in isolation for over a year to feel afraid while trying to be brave to cope and even to grow because of the shared experience The stories we tell and the carefully crafted words we use to tell them are an act of remembrance in which our words build monuments to a time when our lives called upon us to carry on and to endure to know what really matters to know what to cling to and what to let go In making much of the mundane 53 poets share 70 poems in the anthology A 21st Century Plague Poetry from a Pandemic The poems by diverse and award winning writers capture and share the collective Covid experience in which we became gardeners of the spirit who know that without darkness nothing comes to birth as writer May Sarton put it They reveal that we were brave in our contemplative journey and that we dared to deal with our bag of fears as Eudora Welty said we must The poetic expressions of such courage are healing They soothe us and help us recover from and recall a transformative experience This anthology adds to the tradition of sharing stories in well chosen words that move and enlighten us Rising Voices Louis Hoffman,Nathaniel Granger, Jr.,Veronica Lac,2022-01-01 Poetry and art can and should change the world Rising Voices Poetry Toward a Social Justice Revolution forcefully demonstrates this truth With 77 poems from 45 poets Rising Voices addresses critical social justice issues of our time including racism homophobia transphobia sexism homelessness and more Each topic is approached with sensitivity and insight strength and compassion Readers will be provoked to reflection tears and action Rising Voices seeks to comfort support and empower those engaged in social justice work while inspiring others to join the movements This volume includes poems by TS Hawkins Frederick K Foote Jr Red Haircrow Aliya J anai J Thomas Brown Venita Thomas Carol Barrett Nathaniel Granger Jr Veronica Lac Louis Hoffman and more In addition to the poems Rising Voices includes a powerful introduction that frames the poetry of the volume through covering topics such as Critical Race Theory counter stories the role of empathy transforming suffering through meaning the hard and soft edges of social justice and more At the conclusion several activities are included to help readers reflect upon how they can use their own poetry and the poetry of others to participate in the social justice revolution Lullabies & Confessions Louis Hoffman,Lisa Xochitl Vallejos,2021-03-15 Lullabies Confessions is an exquisite book of poetry about parenting and being parented This volume includes over 100 poems by 45 different poets The contributors include award winning poets therapists and counselors and parents Lullabies Confessions is entertaining and growth facilitating The 11th book in the Poetry Healing and Growth Series this book is designed to help readers experience personal growth and deepen self awareness on their own experience of parenting and being parented Also included are several exercises to help readers engage more deeply with the poems and begin writing their own poems about the parenting experience Sunrise Through the Darkness Will

Jimeno, Michael Moats, 2021-08-16 On September 11th 2001 Port Authority Police Officer William Jimeno left his home unsuspecting of what the day was about to hold Just a few hours later he lay crushed beneath the Twin Towers 220 stories of concrete steel and glass Most of his team had already died He and his sergeant were helplessly trapped The pain and anguish had only begun Many have seen Oliver Stone's World Trade Center which depicted this horrific day and the rescue of Will and his Sergeant John McLoughlin Surviving the initial collapse was only part of the story Multiple surgeries forced retirement survivor's guilt depression and learning to live again with PTSD were waiting outside of the rubble Will has teamed with clinical psychologist Michael Moats to share his message of faith hope and love and how these three things helped him navigate the uncharted waters of learning to live again after the tragedy of September 11th Although Sunrise Through the Darkness speaks directly to first responders Will's message is relatable to anyone who has suffered trauma or loves someone who has Sunrise Through the Darkness marks the 20 year anniversary of 9/11 and gives honor to those that died through Will's continued work of healing and serving others

Journey of the Wounded Soul Louis Hoffman, Steve Fehl, 2019-05-17 From the sacred scriptures of the world religions through contemporary times poetry has helped individuals express and work through spiritual struggles Journey of the Wounded Soul continues this ancient tradition in a contemporary voice This collection of poems brings voice to spiritual struggles seeking to create a community through poetic voice It was written for those for whom spiritual struggles are a transitional period as well as for those for whom spiritual struggles are an intimate part of their daily spirituality In addition to the poems the Foreword by Thomas Moore along with the Introduction by Hoffman and Fehl provide a powerful framework for understanding and approaching spiritual struggles Journey of the Wounded Soul offers comfort to the many who wrestle with their spirituality and those who are struggling through difficult spiritual periods From the Foreword I'd like every psychology major in the world to read the brilliant introduction that doesn't miss a step in keeping us close to our humanity and offering solid profound and reliable ideas for navigating the complex ways of the most ordinary life This is poetry that stands on its own but is especially useful when you are in one of life's dark nights or tunnels It doesn't cheer you up instead it takes you deep in thought to the mysteries working themselves out in what you feel to be problems and challenges Thomas Moore Author Care of the Soul Soul Mates The Soul's Religion and A Religion of One's Own
