Common Core Wilson Foundations Kindergarten:

Children at the Center Betty Bardige, Megina Baker, Ben Mardell, 2021-03-09 Children at the Center provides a closely observed account of a decade long effort to reshape the scope direction and quality of the Boston Public Schools early childhood programs Drawing on multiple perspectives and voices from the field the authors highlight the reflective collaborative inquiry driven approach undertaken by the program and share lessons learned Boston Public Schools are recognized for embedding high quality public preK programs in their system and achieving exceptional results In this book the authors outline the core principles that underlie the district s early childhood programs and explore the role of curriculum professional development coaching and data use in supporting these new initiatives They show how the Boston Public Schools Department of Early Childhood was able to work with and against the constraints of the current accountability system to create a holistic child centered play based program that has had a significant impact in narrowing income based learning gaps Written in collaboration with the Department of Early Childhood Education this account of creating successful preK programs in a diverse urban district will provide a valuable resource for practitioners engaged in similar work across the country

Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano, 2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials
