development in China in the hope of providing references for further studies on Chinese CSR Corporate Social Responsibility in Contemporary China Jingchen Zhao, 2014-01-01 China's recent economic transformation and integration into the world economy has coincided with increasing pressure for corporate law reform to make corporate social responsibility CSR integral to business and management strategy in China. This timely book critically analyses contemporary notions of CSR in China, discussing theory and practice alongside legal responses in this emerging field. Jingchen Zhao uniquely combines the history, traditions and social policies of China with Chinese law, explaining the significance of path dependence in China. He presents an in-depth debate on the difficulties involved in transplanting developed legal principles directly into Chinese society and takes a detailed look at the CSR provisions in Chinese company law which aimed to put social and environmental concerns onto the corporate agenda. He suggests how these laws could be more effectively and efficiently enforced with reference to UK law and explores specific issues including Chinese Company Law 2006, the Harmonious Society in China, the 2008 Financial Crisis and its impact on the Chinese economy, recent corporate scandals including the Sanlu Baby Milk scandal, the Wenchuan earthquake and CSR donations, the Beijing Olympic Games and CSR and the Fujia chemical plant. This book will prove an enlightening read for academics and practitioners in the fields of law, business and management interested in CSR and the law in contemporary China. Corporate Social Responsibility in China Dashi Zhang, 2017-05-25 This book explores how the traditional Chinese culture and business ownership influence corporate social responsibility in China. By comparing state-owned enterprises, private companies and multinational companies, it shows how corporate social responsibility is perceived and practiced at the corporate level in these companies. It also studies how intertwined company practices and the Chinese culture are and how this relationship affects the business environment in China. Further, it highlights the value of economic factors in corporate social responsibility and the influence of Chinese philosophy on corporate ethics. It is a valuable tool for researchers and academics wishing to understand the dynamics of corporate social responsibility in China and discover the significant influencing factors in China's business arena.

Corporate Social Responsibility Reporting in China Xiao Wen Cui ((AM, Harvard University, 2015)), 2015 Corporate Social Responsibility In China: A Vision, An Assessment And A Blueprint Benoit Vermader, 2013-11-22 Over the years many corporations have been trying to determine what they can and should do to contribute to the sustainability of the economic, social and ecological environment within which they operate. Corporate social responsibility has become a key senior management issue worldwide and an increasingly debated topic in China. This book aims at helping companies operating in China to better assess and exercise their corporate social responsibility CSR in specific contexts. The purpose of this book is to show that CSR has a strong economic pay back in the long run, that it is a key success factor in nurturing corporate excellence and that a sense of urgency and accrued inventiveness are required from companies operating in China. Cross-disciplinary in scope, the book aims at helping students and analysts in political science, governance, international relations and Chinese studies to understand and appreciate the unique role that firms play in shaping a new China. It focuses on the relationship between the state, civil society and corporations in the Chinese context. It researches the conditions under which this relationship might result in redefining China's developmental model. This practical business oriented book takes into account China's classical and contemporary thought on CSR. It is the result of a long research and collaborative process initiated and led by Maverlinn supported by industry leaders and other institutions.

Reviews: This book criss crosses perspectives emanating from the business world, the government, the experts and the civil society. It anchors corporate responsibility into a vision of sustainable development enriched by China's cultural resources. It is indeed a blueprint for putting responsibility and sustainability at the core of public and private strategies and a required reading for all entrepreneurs operating in Asia.

Dr Michel Camdessus, Former Director General of the IMF, 1987-2000: In corporate social responsibility a great challenge is the gap in knowledge and expectations between managers in China and their head office colleagues. This book provides a comprehensive systematic informative and committed perspective essential to both.

Christian Murck, Former President of the American Chamber of Commerce China: Coming from a foreign scholar, this book builds on the perspectives offered by the Chinese culture while bringing in the most recent examples of corporate practices observable in China, offering to the reader an absolutely unique perspective.

He Yi, Chairman of Essilor China Holding Company, Board Member of Essilor International: This book brings moral clarity and sense of direction to companies having to make strategic choices in a complex environment. At the same time it always takes into account the economic and cultural conditions of China Such reading nurtures discernment and decisiveness Alex Wang CEO of Orange Sourcing Consulting Beijing Co Ltd Convener of the CSR Joint Audit Cooperation Forum between major European telcos Benoit Vermader has brought his deep knowledge of China and the Chinese culture to help us understand the evolving complex nature of CSR with Chinese characteristics This timely work will be useful for managers and leaders looking for a compass to guide them in developing the responsible corporate and individual behavior that is very much needed in Chinese organizations Henri Claude de Bettignies Emeritus Professor of Asian Business INSEAD Emeritus Professor of Globally Responsible Leadership China Europe International Business School CEIBS Shanghai
