Difference and Democracy Kolja Raube, Annika Sattler, 2011-11-14 Differenz ist eine noch häufig vernachlässigte Dimension sozialer Interaktion die jedoch als Forschungsfeld an Bedeutung gewinnt Der Band untersucht das positive Potenzial von Differenz der Ideen Interessen oder Institutionen und zeigt unter welchen Bedingungen sie einen Gewinn für effektives und legitimes Handeln in demokratischen Systemen darstellt Die Beiträger sind Politikwissenschaftler Soziologen Kommunikationswissenschaftler Rechtswissenschaftler und Kunsthistoriker

Global Constitutionalism from European and East Asian Perspectives Takao Suami, Anne Peters, Dimitri Vanoverbeke, Mattias Kumm, 2018-11-29 Examines and compares East Asian and European perspectives of Global Constitutionalism

Rule of Law vs Majoritarian Democracy Giuliano Amato, Benedetta Barbisan, Cesare Pinelli, 2021-08-26 What is more paradoxically democratic than a people exercising their vote against the harbingers of the rule of law and democracy What happens when the will of the people and the rule of law are at odds Some commentators note that the presence of illiberal political movements in the public arena of many Western countries demonstrates that their democracy is so inclusive and alive that it comprehends and countenances even undemocratic forces and political agendas But what if on the contrary these were the signs of the deconsolidation of democracy instead of its good health What if democratically elected regimes were to ignore constitutional principles representing the rule of law and the limits of their power With contributions from judges and scholars from different backgrounds and nationalities this book explores the framework in which this tension currently takes place in several Western countries by focusing on four key themes The Rule of Law presenting a historical and theoretical reconstruction of the evolution of the Rule of Law The People dealing with a set of problems around the notion of people and the forces claiming to represent their voice Democracy and its enemies tackling a variety of phenomena impacting on the traditional democratic balance of powers and institutional order Elected and Non Elected focusing on the juxtaposition between judges and more generally non representative bodies and the people's representation

The Diplomatic System of the European Union Michael Smith, Stephan Keukeleire, Sophie Vanhoonacker, 2015-06-12 Over the past five years the EU has established a new system of diplomacy centred on the European External Action Service EEAS and the High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy This new system reflects a process of evolution in a changing context and has been faced by major challenges since its inception This book examines the diplomatic system of the EU locating it within the broader study of diplomacy and the European integration project The volume is structured around the interrelated themes of institutional change and the evolving practices of EU diplomacy It tracks the development of the EU's system of diplomacy with particular reference to the implementation of the Lisbon Treaty the establishment of the EEAS and the emerging practices of EU strategic and structural diplomacy Bringing together contributions from leading experts in the field this book provides an original approach to the development and operation of the EU's diplomatic system This book will be of interest to students and scholars of European Union international relations European Union politics and diplomacy Islam and Secularity Nilüfer Göle, 2015-10-23 In Islam and Secularity Nil fer G le takes on two pressing issues the transforming relationship between Islam and Western secular modernity and the impact of the Muslim presence in Europe G le shows how the visibility of Islamic practice in the European public sphere unsettles narratives of Western secularism As mutually constitutive Islam and secularism permeate each other the effects of which play out in embodied and aesthetic practices and are accompanied by fear anxiety and violence In this timely book G le illuminates the recent rethinking of secularism and religion of modernity and resistance to it of the public significance of sexuality and of the shifting terrain of identity in contemporary Europe

The Normality of Civil War Teresa Koloma Beck, 2012-10 In The Normality of Civil War Teresa Koloma Beck uses theories of the everyday to analyze the social processes of civil war specifically the type of conflict that is characterized by the expansion of violence into so called normal life She looks beyond simplistic notions of victims and perpetrators to reveal the complex shifting interdependencies that emerge during wartime She also explores how the process of normalization affects both armed groups and the civilian population A brief but smart analysis The Normality of Civil War gets at the root of the social dynamics of war and what lies ahead for the participants after its end The Limits of Choice Sahra

Wagenknecht, 2013-10-02 In The Limits of Choice Sahra Wagenknecht examines household saving decisions and basic needs in Germany and the United States based on official data from both countries from the 1950s to present day Arguing against the hypothesis that assumes consumers optimize their consumption intertemporally based exclusively on their permanent or lifetime income Wagenknecht proposes a rule of thumb according to which consumers will save if their current income exceeds basic expenditure while they will demand credit when income can no longer meet basic needs The Max Planck

Handbooks in European Public Law Armin von Bogdandy, Peter M. Huber, Christoph Grabenwarter, 2023 The fourth volume of the Max Planck Handbooks in European Public Law series compares European constitutional jurisdiction in the perspective of the European legal space It examines the structures of the organization the appointment of judges the procedures and the methods of argumentation and interpretation their impact on state and society their legitimacy or their role in the division of powers and thus completes the picture following the country reports in Volume III This comparative perspective is supplemented by an examination that illustrates the relationship to the ECJ the ECtHR and the Venice Commission as well as their constitutional function Finally the volume is devoted to the challenges currently facing constitutional jurisdiction in the European Legal Space The historical political and theoretical foundations as well as the basic doctrinal features of constitutional jurisdiction are presented in such a way that the discussion about its role and further development in this legal space is sustainably stimulated Writing Political History Today Willibald

Steinmetz, Ingrid Gilcher-Holtey, Heinz-Gerhard Haupt, 2013-05 In recent years political history has been rediscovered by historians In this volume the contributors approach the new political history in a constructivist way conceiving the political as a communicative space whose boundaries are constantly reconfigured through acts of verbal visual and sometimes violent communication Writing Political History Today is organized into four sections focusing on politics and the political as contested concepts boundary disputes between the political and other spheres the question whether violence is a means an object or the end of political communication and on a future agenda for writing political history Environmental Journalism Henrik Bodker,Irene Neverla,2014-10-29 Environmental journalism is an increasingly significant area for study within the broader field of journalism studies It connects the concerns of politics science business culture and the natural world whilst also exploring the boundaries between the local regional and global A central and typical focus for its concerns are the global summits convened to share scientific knowledge about global warming and to formulate policies to mitigate its consequences in particular locales But reporting environmental change creates difficulties for journalists who are often ill equipped to resolve the uncertainties in the disputed scientific accounts of climate change This research based collection focuses on aspects of environmental journalism in Australia France Norway Sweden the UK and the USA Contributors present case studies of media reporting of the environment and explore considerations of objectivity and advocacy in journalistic coverage of the environment and climate change This book was originally published as a special issue of Journalism Studies
