missed opportunities If we feel contrary to our environment then we most likely will be regulated by it begrudgingly because we give over personal control by being on guard It is possible to invest too much energy and vital force in the course of defending or disagreeing We all know the results of the acceleration of opposition To the extent that people hold themselves in reserve as opposed to investing in or exploring new concepts they can forfeit opportunities Diminish future prospects by maintaining some form of defense that seems safe but is actually holding them back Eventually this process can appear as normal and become its own progression into an overly defended mind We must at some point consciously monitor our thoughts thus our motivations to deal with or adapt to new information even if that information is contrary to what we already believe It is called being objective And to do so doesn't mean we have to change our values it simply means we are being courteous to those who have other views on a subject To become emotional is an option however that sometimes creates even more dissension Most of the time we use our observations to lead us toward a solution or answer But where do our observations come from Our personal history which may well have some inaccurate or dated information If we recognize frustration or misunderstandings we can govern our thoughts and create better outcomes We can overcome most of our troubles by doing so and we can create a better more prosperous future Anthology - Three Short Spiritual Stories Michael Hodo, Sophia Thomas, 2017-11-19 An anthology of three short spiritual stories Samuel Gary's Redemption and Katherine's Time The Ultimate Teen Book Guide Daniel Hahn, Leonie Flynn, Susan Reuben, 2007-12-26 Covering such genres as fantasy horror chick lit graphic novels sci fi and mystery and all encompassing must have resource profiles more than 700 of the best books for teens from the classics to the latest bestsellers Simultaneous The Directors Nick C.
