The Eighth Edition the first since the passing of Thomas Crandall and the addition of David Horton as co author is more accessible than ever

It introduces complicated issues with a clear narrative summary or explicit statement of black letter law

The cases have been tightly edited for best effect

The book can also be easily adapted to fit various pedagogical needs

Although it starts with Agreement and moves to Consideration it is also designed for teachers who prefer to begin with Consideration or Remedies

It can be used in courses that both include and exclude sales

Finally because it is shorter than most other texts in this field it works in 4 unit 5 unit and 6 unit courses

New to the Eighth Edition

Substantial input from a new co author means that the book contains scores of new cases Problems and narrative introductions to issues

Each opinion has been streamlined to enhance readability

Where possible applicable Restatement of Contracts and Uniform Commercial Code sections have been printed in the text saving students the cost of buying separate supplements

Professors and students will benefit from

Coverage of the basics of Contracts Law in a format that allows greater exposure to the legal concepts through the many Problems that fill each chapter alongside the most illustrative cases on point

Assessment multiple choice questions at the end of each chapter that are meatier than such questions in most books focusing not on the right answer so much as on what real attorneys must consider when confronted with the issues presented

The entire book's approach not just to teach rules of law but to train students to be lawyers faced with commercial issues

For example Problems sometimes ask students whether they would be committing malpractice if they took a certain course of conduct an issue very much on the mind of actual attorneys but seldom mentioned in law school classrooms
