Course Overview: This semester long elective course is designed to provide students an opportunity to learn about and examine modern-day local, national, and global issues, problems, and current events. The desired outcome is that students will 1) become better informed and, therefore, more engaged, active citizens, and 2) recognize that many of these issues have historical and cultural origins rooted in the recent and ancient past. In this course, students will analyze a variety of primary and secondary texts to explore not just media bias but also the various other factors that influence how news is reported and consumed in the 21st century.
