Kaptchuk, 1983 While Western doctors look for disease mechanisms which are the same from person to person Chinese doctors look for overall patterns of disharmony which are unique to each individual Ted Kaptchuk who studied medicine in China originally intended to translate Chinese medical texts into English but quickly realized that it would take more than simple translation to convey the meaning of a diagnosis like damp heat affecting the spleen Instead in The Web That Has No Weaver he explains the theory and philosophy of Chinese medicine as well as methods of diagnosis and treatment in terms that can be understood by a Western reader The Chinese emphasis on interconnectedness had change takes on a very specific character in the context of medicine When the Chinese physician examines a patient he or she plans to look at many signs and symptoms and to make of them a diagnosis to see in them a pattern Each sign means nothing by itself and acquires meaning only in its relationship to the patient's other signs Herbal Medicine and Reproductive Health Marie Reilly, 2021-06-17 Herbal Medicine and Reproductive Health is a comprehensive text book for herbalists nutritionists and other healthcare practitioners which provides detailed information on reproductive health in both men and women It will enable practitioners to gain an in depth understanding of a wide range of reproductive health problems from both an orthodox medical and an energetic holistic perspective with detailed advice on case history taking clinical examination and orthodox investigations together with comprehensive sections on diagnosing Ayurvedic and TCM patterns of disharmony which may contribute to reproductive health problems Herbal Medicine and Reproductive Health also explores in detail how to overcome reproductive health problems and improve fertility with herbal medicine nutrition and lifestyle changes Indigenous Peoples' Wisdom and Power Julian Kunnie, Nomalungelo Goduka, 2017-05-15 Capturing the narratives of indigenes this book presents a unique anthology on global Indigenous peoples' wisdoms and ways of knowing Covering issues of religion cultural self determination philosophy spirituality sacred sites oppression gender and the suppressed voices of women the diverse global contexts across Africa Asia the Middle East North and South America and Oceania are highlighted The contributions represent heart felt
