"It don't read as plans (did). My plans wait on."

—Alice Bradley

Description

Creative Writing draws on skills and imagination to convey meaning through language. This class will read and write within genres of fiction, nonfiction, and poetry, exploring various forms of each. You will analyze literature for authorial choices and literary devices in order to understand the craft of writing. You will apply a variety of genres and devices to your own writing, learning new skills and applying important techniques. You will collaborate positively and effectively through workshops as you give and receive feedback. By the end of our semester together you will have read and written much, resulting in final 30-page portfolio of your own best original work.

Texts: 50 Essays, Carver
Calhoun, Bama
(Additional texts listed below)

"That is a magical word. This has been a major point in my literary thinking all my life."

—Charles R. Mappone
