Crescent Between Cross And Star Muslims And The West After 911:

Crescent Between Cross and Star Iftikhar Haider Malik, 2006 Misperceptions and reservations about Islam registered a significant impetus following the tragic events of 9 11 and 7 7 Against a backdrop of intense Islamophobia and neo conservatism military invasions of Muslim countries and restrictive legislation on immigration and civil liberties have seriously affected inter community relationships bringing the Muslim diaspora under serious scrutiny Concurrently scholars and journalists have portrayed Islam as a hegemonic ideology needing reformation Polemicists and neo orientalisks have left no stone unturned in denigrating Islamic humanism Diehard evangelists provide moral justification for this animus which reverberates across the globe through similar groups such as Likud and Hindutva While Muslims are overwhelmingly aggrieved over the destruction and denigration of their communities and heritage their problems of poverty universal disempowerment and alienation remain unattended by both their rulers and their Western backers whose own interests take priority Exposés of torture and brutalization of internees at Guantanamo Bay Abu Ghraib Jail Bagram Air Base and Israel's Facility 1391 and massacres such as those at Mazar i Sharif Kandahar Gujarat and Jenin have exacerbated Muslim anguish However such assaults have also generated an overdue intra Muslim debate in which scholars and youth groups can conduct a vital discourse on gender equality democracy pluralism and modernity This volume presents a historical account of relationships among the Abrahamic traditions and then focuses on recent scholarship and polemical outpourings which have spawned anti Muslim sentiments Case studies from Western and Southern Asia illustrate a complex interplay between the written word and volatile geopolitics Despite its focus on the Judaic Christian formulations vis a vis Islam the book also attempts to assess the Muslim position on ideological challenges presented by this dramatic phase in the tri polar relationship

Pashtun Identity and Geopolitics in Southwest Asia Iftikhar H. Malik, 2016-07-18 Pashtun Identity and Geopolitics in Southwest Asia brings together Pakistan and Afghanistan as two inseparable entities by investigating areas such as the evolution and persistence of the Taliban quest for Pashtun identity the ambivalent status of the tribal region and the state of civic clusters on both sides In addition to their relations with the United States and the EU a due attention has been devoted to regional realities while looking at relations with India and China The study explores vital disciplines of ethnography history Islamic studies and international relations and benefits from a wide variety of source material The volume takes into account the salient subjects including political Islam nature and extent of violence since 9 11 failure of Western policies in the region the Drone warfare and the emergence of new regimes in Kabul Islamabad and Delhi offering fresh opportunities as well as new threat perceptions

established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Curating Lived Islam in the Muslim World Iftikhar H. Malik,2021-06-17 Beginning with the medieval period this book collates and reviews first hand scholarship on Muslims in the Middle East and South Asia as noted down by eminent British travellers sleuths and observers of lived Islam The book foregrounds the pre colonial and pre Orientalist phase and locates the multi disciplinarity of Britain s relationship with Muslims over the last millennium to demonstrate a multi layered interface Fully sensitive to a gender balance the book focuses on specially selected individuals and their transformative experiences while living and working among Muslims Examining the writings of male and female authors including Adelard Thomas Coryate Mary Montagu and Fanny Parkes the book analyses their understanding of Islam Moreover the author explores the works of a salient number of representative colonial British women to move away from the imperious wives stereotype and shed light on gender and Islam in Near East and South Asia by illustrating the status of women tribal hierarchies historic and architectural sites and regional politics Going beyond familiar views about colonialism travel writings and memsahibs without losing sight of the complex relations between Britain and Asian Muslims this book will be of interest to academics working on British history Imperial history the study of religions Shi i Islam Islamic studies Gender and the Empire and South Asian Studies Contemporary Muslim-Christian Encounters Paul Hedges,2015-07-30 Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues addresses the key issues in the present day global encounter between Christians and Muslims Divided into two parts the first examines theoretical issues and concerns which affect dialogue between the two traditions The second part highlights case studies from around the world Chapters come from established scholars including Reuven Firestone Douglas Pratt and Clinton Bennett emerging scholars as well as practitioner perspectives Highlighting the diversity within the field of Christian Muslim encounter case studies cover examples from the US and globally and include dialogue in the US post 9 11 Nigerian Muslims and Christians and Christian responses to Islamophobia in the UK Covering unique areas and those not explored in detail elsewhere Contemporary Muslim Christian Encounters Developments Diversity and Dialogues will be of interest to advanced students researchers and interfaith professionals The Star, the Cross, and the Crescent Carine Bourget,2011-12-19 The Star the Cross and the Crescent analyzes fiction films comics autobiographical narratives and essays by Francophone Arab writers whose Christian Accad Antaki Ch did Maalouf Jewish Albou Cixous El Maleh Memmi Muslim Bachi Bena ssa Benguigui Ben Jelloun Boudjedra Boudjellal Meddeb Mimouni and secular Sebbar backgrounds are emblematic of the diversity of the Francophone Arab world It examines how these writers represent the intertwining of religion and politics against the backdrop of the current international political context and the resurgence of religion Focusing on a series of disputes commonly framed in religious terms with Islam as the common denominator for all the Arab Israeli conflict the Lebanese and the Algerian civil wars the affair of the Muslim headscarf in France and 9 11 this book questions the effectiveness of the Francophone studies model in providing insights into the complexity of the Islamic Revival The study concludes by unpacking the influence of politics on the translation of these works in the U S It brings heightened awareness to the modalities according to which a creative work can serve as a cultural mediator The Democratic Predicament Jyotirmaya Tripathy, Sudarsan Padmanabhan, 2014-03-14 Both India and Europe have been undergoing a difficult process of negotiating cultural religious and ethnic diversity within their democratic frameworks In fact recent incidents of xenophobic backlash against multiculturalism and minority communities in Europe as well as myriad movements for constitutional recognition of castes tribes and languages and the emergence of Islamophobic terror in India question the conventional idea of democracy as the idyllic preserver of diversity This volume contests the simplistic connection between democracy and diversity by proposing that democracy in fact produces sediments and reinforces cultural heterogeneity It argues that in democratic polities disparate cultural practices are often converted into identity categories with disturbing implications for national identity constitutionalism political governance and citizenship While mobilizations on the plank of cultural differences are typically viewed as being born in undemocratic spaces with little toleration for diversity they also find fertile soil in democracy insofar as democracy celebrates diversity and allows cultural dissent to thrive Such dissent while essential for democracy has difficult consequences Examining the fundamental conflict between constructions of particular cultural identities and mandates of a unifying democratic ethos the book brings forth the complexities underlying the politics of identity recognition and national integration In making a radical intervention in the discourse this volume offers a critique of existing paradigms of multiculturalism It will interest scholars and students of political science sociology and postcolonial and comparative studies Crusade 2.0 John Feffer, 2012-03-20 In his official response to the attacks of September 11 George W Bush invoked the Crusades tapping into a centuries long history of fear and aggression The West's longstanding perception of Islam as a threat has taken on new and more complex implications in the twenty first century as years of migration and resulting demographic shifts have brought the enemy within Western borders Virulent opposition to the planned construction of an Islamic center near the 9 11 attack site in New York City reveals much about the intensity of public sentiments simmering just below the surface As the United States and countries across Europe struggle with a resurgence of unexamined fear and antagonism often directed against their own citizens the imperative for better understanding could not be greater Crusade 2.0 examines the resurgence of anti Islamic sentiment in the West and its global implications John Feffer discusses the influence of three unfinished wars the Crusades the Cold War and the current war on terror He presents a timely concise and provocative look at current events in the context of historical trends and goes beyond a clash of civilizations critique to offer concrete ways to defuse the ticking bomb of Islamophobia John Feffer's Crusade 2.0

The West's Resurgent War On Islam offers a brief but effective exposé of a social cancer that continues to grow exponentially in America and Europe threatening the security and civil liberties of Muslims and the principles and values of Western democracies John L Esposito John Feffer's illuminating and important new work Crusade 2.0 sheds light on the disturbing phenomenon of Islamophobia in America with a clear-eyed view of history meticulous research and persuasive arguments This accessible and informative book shows how fear mongering when married to ignorance and selfish political agendas not only threatens to marginalize entire communities of innocent people but also undermine the core values of pluralism tolerance and fairness that define America Wajahat Ali If you want to understand the particular madness of America's twenty-first century you need to read John Feffer's account of how Washington launched crusade 2.0 including two invasions and occupations of Muslim lands and a Global War on Terror sporting aptly named Hellfire missiles aimed directly at the Muslim world Add in the injection of fear of Islam directly into the American bloodstream and the rise of Islamophobia as domestic political red meat and you have a truly American nightmare Feffer is its Homer and this is our sad Odyssey Tom Engelhardt John Feffer is co-director of Foreign Policy in Focus at the Institute for Policy Studies in Washington DC He is the author of several books including North Korea South Korea His essays have been published in The New York Times The Boston Globe and elsewhere he has been interviewed by CNN MSNBC Al Jazeera Democracy Now and other international news media

Arab Criminology Nabil Ouassini, Anwar Ouassini, 2023-03-03 The objective of Arab Criminology is to establish a criminological subfield called Arab Criminology The ever-evolving field of criminology has advanced in the past decade yet many impediments remain Unlike criminology in Africa Asia the Americas Europe and Oceania which is based merely on geopolitical constructs the Arab world has unique commonalities that do not exist in the other established subfields of criminology The Arab world has largely remained in criminology's periphery despite the region's considerable importance to current international affairs In response this book explores two main questions Why should we and how do we establish a subfield in Arab criminology The authors examine the state of criminology in the Arab world define its parameters and present four components that bond and distinguish Arab criminology from other criminological area studies They then identify the requirements for establishing Arab criminology and detail how local regional and international researchers can collaborate develop and expand the subfield Arab criminology will challenge some of the recurrent Orientalist and Islamophobic tropes in Northern criminology and progress the discipline of criminology to reflect a more diverse focus that embraces regions from the Global South Presenting compelling arguments and examples that support the establishment of this subfield Arab Criminology will be of great interest to scholars of criminology criminal justice legal studies and Middle Eastern North African studies particularly those working on Southern criminology comparative criminology international criminal justice systems and Arab studies Handbook of South Asia: Political Development Europa Publications, 2023-07-07 This Handbook brings together essays that introduce the reader to the key issues in South Asian political development

Written by experts in their respective areas the essays explore key aspects of political economy political and economic change and the complex diplomatic and security challenges of individual countries and the region as a whole Essays discuss topics as wide ranging as China s growing reach in South Asia political Islam SAARC and water politics through the region This well researched Handbook is an essential reference tool for students and scholars of Political Science International Relations and South Asian studies With an introduction by Harsh V Pant
