BOLSINGER, 2021 Leadership for a Time of Pandemic Tod Bolsinger, 2020-05-15 In just a few weeks the COVID 19 pandemic changed everything What does ministry require now Drawing from Tod Bolsinger's books Canoeing the Mountains and Tempered Resilience this brief timely book is an ideal resource for applying some of his key leadership insights to the current global crisis Uncharted Leadership Angie Ward, 2023-08-01 Ministry is complicated and every leadership challenge is unique How can you lead effectively when there isn't a clear path forward Real life ministry is complicated far more complicated than is typically captured in leadership books There are moving parts and people who require adept agile adaptive leadership Unlike technical challenges with a clear or known solution adaptive challenges are complex and dynamic requiring creative leaderships Adaptive leadership is art not science It is an exercise in wisdom not just knowledge It requires leaders to ascertain the issues values and stakes unique to a given situation to consider the potential courses of action and decide which courses are best The case study method is a proven and effective tool to help leaders chart their course by learning from complex real life situations Leaders learn to integrate multiple leadership strategies and concepts by reading and reflecting on multiple case studies helping them clarify their own unique context values challenges opportunities and potential actions Like real ministry case studies are complex There is not always an easy solution or even a fast understanding of the real problem's The case studies in Uncharted Leadership promote learning at the deepest level helping leaders move beyond simple answers to deep individual and organizational understanding and transformation Uncharted Leadership applies the case study method to ministry leadership Through a series of relevant real life case studies in ministry leadership Angie Ward brings the classroom to the reader using thought provoking questions commentary and recommended resources to expand the leader's empathy understanding awareness and skill Now to God Who Is Able Neal D. Presa, Anne E. Zaki, 2023-12-11 The triune God of justice has a mission in the world which we are called to participate and partner in The awesome nature of that mission and vision inspires and animates this volume Now to God Who Is Able An international array of Christian pastors scholar activists parachurch ministry leaders and community organizers reflect critically on the theological biblical contextual and practical dimensions of what it means to bear witness of the gospel

orientated and anchored in God's justice Using a trinitarian framework within the prophetic call to do justice love mercy and walk humbly with God this book speaks to the modern challenges and opportunities of the pastoral vocation ecclesiology hermeneutics homiletics ecumenism theological education and missional theology Each essay and this book honor the more than four decades of ministry of Mark Labberton who retired as president of Fuller Theological Seminary in 2023 Picking Up the Pieces Kathleen McShane,Elan Babchuck,2024-01-16 While the exodus dates back thousands of years religious organizations continue to operate in the shadows of the pyramids the symbol of empire that the Israelites once toiled to build The reason is understandable given that pyramids are remarkably stable structures Pyramids lend an orderliness to organizational relationships in our churches and synagogues However Kathleen McShane and Elan Babchuck argue that such leadership models reflect syncretic cultural traditions more than our theological convictions These patterns elevate the structure of the pyramid above the people They reward the consolidation of power at the top at the expense of the freedom of those below They constrain creativity and elevate efficiency at the cost of human dignity In Picking Up the Pieces McShane and Babchuck argue that these leadership models are not the way of the gospel Therefore today's religious leaders need a more generous model They need a leadership model where power is shared rather than hoarded and where every person can stretch toward the fullness of their God given gifts regardless of where they land on an organizational chart Through an innovative exploration of Moses's biblical narrative the authors suggest that Moses's leadership failures were because he too was shaped by empire The authors notice Moses's stumbles and corrections and the ways he picks up the pieces of broken leadership templates to guide his people toward their liberation Picking Up the Pieces also offers stories of contemporary innovators and boundary stretchers who grapple with failed experiments of religious leadership This book offers a provocation to religious leaders to exercise institutional power more generously The book will speak to leaders who are ready to shift from organizational patterns that demand over functioning and instead share power so that power multiplies It will help leaders help their people fully engage in the life giving promise that awaits them The Art of Leading Change Mike

Bonem,2022-07-26 The Art of Leading Change is all about people We can't do the work God has called us to do without people but it's those very people that make change difficult and messy The book offers ten vital perspectives for leading change in churches and ministries The path to change is never easy but learning the art of change can improve the journey

All Ages Becoming Valerie M Grissom,2023-10-24 We are in this together all ages practicing all ages becoming God's people Often intergenerational initiatives are seen as the next new church trend or another programming tool for church growth and revitalization Ultimately though intergenerational practice is at the core of what it means for us to be the body of Christ God intends for all ages to participate in faith formation together we are formed in our practice of intergenerationality as we participate in the formation of becoming God's people All Ages Becoming brings theologians practitioners and ministry leaders representing diverse denominations generations cultures and geographical locations together to help us explore this adventure of intergenerational Christian practice As you consider intergenerational practice in your own faith community each chapter provides Theology in Practice sections with questions designed to help your community reflect discuss discover experiment reinvent redesign and continue in your community of practice Respecting Congregations Clyde Ervine, 2025-05-22 Across North America congregations and their leaders are experiencing unprecedented anxiety Despite the many organizational and growth strategies offered to congregational leaders over the last five decades few congregations are growing and most are coping with numerical decline With fewer people attending worship and fewer students offering themselves for ordination at least in mainline denominations many Christians worry that the church across the continent is in the process of dying While Ervine s book may not offer swift solutions it does offer hope Fearful congregations and their leaders are invited to set the search for quick fix solutions aside and instead take the time to discover and then respect the identity purpose and ministry priorities that the New Testament provides to congregations This book is written in the conviction that clarity about their in Christ identity their purpose in God s ongoing mission and what is essential to their ministry will give congregations new confidence to offer Christian witness rooted in biblical teaching while respecting twenty first century cultural realities
