Collecting An Unruly Passion Psychological Perspectives:

Collecting: An Unruly Passion Werner Muensterberger, 2014-07-14 From rare books valuable sculpture and paintings the relics of saints and porcelain and other precious items through stamps textiles military ribbons and shells to baseball cards teddy bears and mugs an amazing variety of objects have engaged and even obsessed collectors through the ages With this captivating book the psychoanalyst Werner Muensterberger provides the first extensive psychological examination of the emotional sources of the never ending longing for yet another collectible Muensterberger's roster of driven acquisition hunters includes the dedicated the serious and the infatuated whose chronic restlessness can be curbed and then merely temporarily only by purchasing discovering receiving or even stealing a new find In an easy conversational style the author discusses the eccentricities of heads of state literary figures artists and psychoanalytic patients all possessed by a need for magic relief from despair and helplessness and for the self healing implied in the phrase I can't live without it The sketches here are diverse indeed Walter Benjamin Mario Praz Catherine the Great Poggio Bracciolini Brunelleschi and Jean de Berry among others The central part of the work explores in detail the personal circumstances and life history of three individuals a contemporary collector Martin G the celebrated British book and manuscript collector Sir Thomas Phillipps who wanted one copy of every book in the world and the great French novelist Honoré de Balzac a compulsive collector of bric à brac who expressed his empathy for the acquisitive passions of his collector protagonist in Cousin Pons In addition Muensterberger takes the reader on a charming tour of collecting in the Renaissance and looks at collecting during the Golden Age of Holland in the seventeenth century Throughout we enjoy the author's elegant variations on a complicated theme stated much too simply by John Steinbeck I guess the truth is that I simply like junk Originally published in 1993 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Collecting Werner Muensterberger, 1994 Borderlands, 2021-11-08 Boundaries borderlines limits on the one hand and rites of passage contact zones in between spaces on the other have attracted renewed interest in a broad variety of cultural discourses after a long period of decenterings and delimitations in numerous fields of social psychological and intellectual life Anthropological dimensions of the subject and its multifarious ways of world making represent the central challenge among the concerns of the humanities The role of literature and the arts in the formation of cultural and personal identities theoretical and political approaches to the relation between self and other the familiar and the foreign have become key issues in literary and cultural studies forms of expressivity and expression and question of mediation as well as new enquiries into ethics have characterized the intellectual energies of the past decade The aim of

Borderlands is to represent a variety of approaches to questions of border crossing and boundary transgression approaches from different angles and different disciplines but all converging in their own way on the post colonial paradigm Topics discussed include globalization cartography and ontology transitional identity ecocritical sensibility questions of the application of post coloniality gender and sexuality and attitudes towards space and place As well as studies of the cinema of the settler colonies the films of Neil Jordan and Othering in Canadian sports journalism there are treatments of the Nigerian novel South African prison memoirs and African women s writing Authors examined include Elizabeth Bowen Bruce Chatwin Mohamed Choukri Nuruddin Farah Jamaica Kincaid Pauline Melville Bharati Mukherjee Michael Ondaatje and Leslie Marmon Silko

No Innocent Deposits Richard J. Cox, 2003-12-10 The public increase of interest in the past has not necessarily brought with it a greater understanding about how archives are formed To this end Richard Cox takes a serious look at archival repositories and collections Cox suggests that archives do not just happen but are consciously shaped and sometimes distorted by archivists the creators of records and other individuals and institutions In this series of essays Cox offers archivists rare insight into the fundamentals of appraisal and historians and other users of archives the opportunity to appreciate the collections they all too often take for granted

What's in a Name? David M Jones, Jan S. Slater, 2014-12-18 This is a completely rewritten and updated version of one of the true classic books in the field of marketing and advertising What s in a Name Advertising and the Concept of Brands analyzes brands from the point of view of modern marketing theory It deals in detail with the role of advertising in creating building and maintaining strong brands the lifeblood of any long term marketing campaign The work is empirically based and is supported by the best research from both the professional and academic fields The authors describe the birth and maturity of brands and dissect the patterns of consumer purchasing of repeat purchase goods In addition to all new research findings and examples this new edition of What s in a Name includes first time coverage of the short term medium term and long term effects of advertising on sales of brands The book concludes with new recommendations on how to develop and disseminate better advertising

Geographies of Nineteenth-Century Science David N. Livingstone, Charles W. J. Withers, 2011-07-15 Here David Livingstone and Charles Withers gather essays that deftly navigate the spaces of science in this significant period and reveal how each is embedded in wider systems of meaning authority and identity

Nature and culture Samuel J. M. M. Alberti, 2017-10-03 This is a vital new work the first to take the University of Manchester s Museum as its subject By setting the museum in its cultural and intellectual contexts Nature and culture explores twentieth century collecting and display and the status of the object in the modern world Beginning with the origins of the Manchester Museum accounting for its development as an internationally renowned university museum and concluding at its major expansion at the turn of the millennium this book casts new light on the history of museums How did objects become knowledge Who encountered museum objects on their way to museums What happened to collections within the museum How did visitors use and respond to objects In answering these questions Nature and culture illuminates not only the history of one institution but also contributes to wider discussions in the history of science cultural history and museology
