heroes and heroines how they positioned the narrator how they responded to existing texts how they utilised or transcended genre conventions for their own purposes and how they sought to relate to their audiences The literary focus of the chapters assembled here showcases the diversity of hagiographical texts written in Greek Latin Coptic and Syriac as well as pointing out the ongoing conversations that connect them By asking these questions of this diverse group of texts it illuminates the literary development of hagiography in the late antique Byzantine and medieval periods Becoming an African Diaspora in Australia F. Ndhlovu, 2014-07-08 Becoming an African Diaspora in Australia extends debates on identities cultures and notions of race and racism into new directions as it analyses the forms of interactional identities of African migrants in Australia It de naturalises the commonplace assumptions and imaginations about the cultures and identities of African diaspora communities and probes the relevance and usefulness of identity markers such as country of origin nationality ethnicity ethnic heritage language and mother tongue Current cultural frames of identity representation have so far failed to capture the complexities of everyday lived experiences of transnational individuals and groups Therefore by drawing on fresh concepts and recent empirical evidence this book invites the reader to revisit and rethink the vocabularies that we use to look at identity categories such as race culture language ethnicity nationality and citizenship and introduces a new language nesting model of diaspora identity This book will be of great interest to all students of migration diaspora African and Australian studies Researching Education Policy, Public Policy, and Policymakers Dan Gibton, 2015-10-05
