Dietrich Bonhoeffer Called By God:

Dietrich Bonhoeffer Elizabeth Raum, 2003-09-03 Nazi Germany produced an unusual group of Christian martyrs among them the nun philosopher Edith Stein the mystical philosopher Simone Weil and the peasant conscientious objector Hans J Sgerstatter but perhaps none so complex as the Lutheran theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer Born into a large upper middle class professional family that was not particularly devout or observant his father was one of the leading psychiatrists in Germany Dietrich early in life decided he wanted to be a Christian theologian Yet his family background and connections insured that he wouldn't be one in the narrow mold of so many of his colleagues Opportunities for travel to Spain North Africa Mexico Cuba America twice and England often gave him a broad horizon of possibilities The greatest thing about America for him was his experiences in Harlem and his friendships with African Americans His great regret was that he missed an opportunity to travel to India to meet Gandhi He was one of the few German churchmen who spoke forthrightly against the persecution of Jews as Jews and not merely of Christians of Jewish descent How much of this was due to his beloved 90 year old grandmother Sophie who defied the Nazi ban on shopping in Jewish stores I buy the things I need where I like His family connections drew him into a dangerous double game His employment as a member of the Counterintelligence Office of the High Command of the Armed Forces enabled him to continue work as a pastor and seminary director It allowed him to travel abroad where he worked for a negotiated peace And it eventually drew him into the plot to kill Hitler an ethical stand which many German Christians of his generation couldn't understand or forgive He was executed on 9 April 1945 three weeks before Hitler committed suicide He was thirty nine years old The life of Dietrich Bonhoeffer has been told at great length and in magnificent detail by his younger colleague Eberhard Bethge It's a biography that will never be surpassed but which only the most devoted will have the perseverance to read Elizabeth Raum has retold the story concisely and readably for a whole new generation of readers A Dangerous Dozen Canon C. K. Robertson, 2011 Sometimes What We Need Most Is What We Fear Most Times change and situations seem to change but there is still a great need for prophets for God's ambassadors to stand up and be counted Who will dare to be Paul the Apostle today or Dorothy Day or Francis of Assisi or Dietrich Bonhoeffer Who will dare when God calls to say Here I am Lord Send me from the Foreword by Archbishop Desmond Tutu Meet twelve fascinating at times intimidating Christian change agents who were unafraid to ask what God would have them do in the face of life's realities and unafraid to go ahead and do it Their words and actions challenged the status quo and in so doing they showed the face of Jesus to the Church and to the world Whether calling us to live simply in the name of Jesus showing the way to genuine peacemaking or exemplifying the true meaning of courage the legacies of these blessed troublemakers continue to inspire us today if we let them Paul of Tarsus Mary Magdalene Origen of Alexandria Francis of Assisi Hildegard of Bingen Thomas Cranmer Sojourner Truth Dorothy Day Dietrich Bonhoeffer Janani Luwum Oscar Romero K H Ting The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church, Volume 6 Hughes Oliphant Old, 2007 The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church is a multivolume study by Hughes Oliphant Old that canvasses the history of preaching from the words of Moses at Mount Sinai through modern times In Volume 1 The Biblical Period Old begins his survey by discussing the roots of the Christian ministry of the Word in the worship of Israel He then examines the preaching of Christ and the Apostles Finally Old looks at the development and practice of Christian preaching in the second and third centuries concluding with the ministry of Origen

Bonhoeffer's New Beginning Andrew D. DeCort, 2018-09-15 Bonhoeffer's New Beginning investigates the ethics of making new beginnings after devastating moral rupture The work argues that new beginnings must be made in order to sustain the fundamental convictions that it is good to exist and that life in the world with others should be loved without exclusion Bonhoeffer's ethics of new beginning is set in conversation with the thought of four moral philosophers Friedrich Nietzsche Hannah Arendt Jonathan Glover and Jonathan Lear DeCort argues that Bonhoeffer's ethics of new beginning opens and energizes a more promising world affirming moral vision with radical hope for new beginnings vis vis the perceived absence of God in the face of devastation

Encountering God Diana L. Eck, 2014-10-28 A clarion call for interfaith dialogue in the U S this splendid exposition of non Christian approaches to God encourages an increased religious literacy that will contribute richness and diversity to our national identity Publishers Weekly In this tenth anniversary edition of Encountering God religious scholar Diana Eck shows why dialogue with people of other faiths remains crucial in today's interdependent world globally nationally and even locally As the director of the Pluralism Project which seeks to map the new religious diversity of the United States from Hinduism and Buddhism to Islam she reveals how her own encounters with other religions have shaped and enlarged her Christian faith toward a bold new Christian pluralism

Liberated by God's Grace Anne Burghardt, 2016-09-01 In these four booklets theologians from all parts of the world reflect on the main theme and three sub themes Liberated by God's Grace Salvation Not for Sale Human Beings Not for Sale Creation Not for Sale of the Lutheran World Federation's commemoration of the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation This collection of essays provides profound insights into the crucial issues and challenges daily faced by the members of the worldwide Lutheran communion in very diverse contexts The theological concept of justification by God's grace and its consequences for different dimensions of life serve as the main guiding principles for the essays each one of which is accompanied by three questions that invite to further contextual reflection on the subject This work comes in a boxed set of four booklets which can only be purchased together Booklet 1 Liberated by God's Grace 500 years of Reformation Booklet 2 Salvation Not for Sale Booklet 3 Human Beings Not for Sale Booklet 4 Creation Not for Sale A German translation will be published next year

Metanoia and OTHER SERMONS Ruskin Falls, 2021-10-31 The book is a collection of twenty three sermons from the period of February through August 2020 Each sermon is preceded and thereby situated in the congregation by that Sunday's greeting and after the church moved to online only worship due to the outbreak of COVID 19

by the day's announcements The author considers his preaching style to be more irenic than competitive in spirit If though there is homiletic competition going on in what he is doing here it is he says with preachers and with himself when he numbers among them who are bent as preachers on being conservative or evangelical or liberal or progressive or idiosyncratic or entertaining or otherwise situated above the word that preachers as preachers must strive to submit to and serve He intends his sermons as exercises in openness for the truth of God's word which word the church is ever on the verge of losing touch with and needing to learn anew to hear and heed The sermons are neither feel good nor finger pointing They are neither prosperity promoting nor therapeutically oriented They are not even an attempt to make the church sound relevant to the issues of the day Rather they simply aim at openness to the truth that sets us free for and in and through the faith and courage that Christ came bringing

God Against Religion Matthew Myer Boulton, 2008-01-29 This volume outlines a Christian theology that takes worship as its basic framework as the occasion of not only an approach toward God in piety but also separation from God in sin Drawing on Luther Calvin and especially Karl Barth Matthew Myer Boulton builds a Reformed liturgical theology maintaining that the God of Jesus Christ is a God against religion one who saves human beings from religion by entering it transforming it and ultimately ending it

Eberhard Jüngel and Existence Deborah Casewell, 2021-05-30 This book interrogates the contemporary Lutheran theologian Eberhard Jüngel's theological anthropology arguing that Jüngel's thought can provide a model for theological engagement with philosophical accounts of existence Focusing on Jüngel's theology of existence the author explores the thought of philosophers including Heidegger and Hegel their influence on and application to his theology and argues that Jüngel's account of humanity should be seen as a response to atheistic existentialist accounts of existence In showing how Jüngel's theology is informed by and dependent on philosophical thought this book provides a new lens on the interplay between philosophy theology and religion in twentieth century German thought It will be of particular interest to researchers in philosophy theology and philosophy of religion

The Geography of God's Incarnation Ann Pederson, 2013-07-25 What does geography have to do with the incarnation of God and with our spiritual lives as Christians We will embark on a theological road trip that explores how geographies are at the heart of understanding of God's incarnation in the world It is no surprise to Christians that the center of the incarnation is the person of Jesus Christ God in flesh made manifest However it might be a stretch for some Christians to imagine that the promise that God has become flesh is not only in a person but also in a place in the creation Christians need to expand what incarnation means and what it means to be created in the image of God so that the scope of God's creative and redemptive action and work indeed reaches to the scope of all things from the outer reaches of space to the inner reaches of our hearts To be the creatures of God that God calls us to be requires a kind of dual citizenship within the details of our daily life attending to the needs of our neighbors simultaneously knowing we are part of a greater cosmos whose future is still unfolding
