Digressions In European Literature From Cervantes To Sebald:

Digressions in European Literature A. Grohmann, C. Wells, 2010-11-17 With studies of amongst others Miguel de Cervantes Anton Chekhov Charles Baudelaire and Henry James this landmark collection of essays is a unique and wide ranging exploration and celebration of the many forms of digression in major works by fifteen of the finest European writers from the early modern period to the present day

Madness and Irrationality in Spanish and Latin American Literature and Culture Lloyd Hughes Davies, 2020-06-01 The subject matter is topical madness has universal and enduring appeal The positive aspects of the irrational particularly its potential for cultural renewal are given more prominence than has been the case in the past The coverage is wide ranging new critical angles enrich our understanding of major writers while the appeal of lesser known figures is highlighted often by means of a comparative perspective

Wandering Games Melissa Kagen, 2022-10-11 A thought provoking analysis of wandering within different game worlds viewed through the lenses of work colonialism gender and death with examples from The Last of Us Part II and others Wandering in games can be a theme a formal mode an aesthetic metaphor or a player action It can mean walking escaping traversing meandering or returning In this book game studies scholar Melissa Kagen introduces the concept of wandering games exploring the uses of wandering in a variety of game worlds She shows how the much derided Walking Simulator a term that began as an insult a denigration of games that are less violent less task oriented or less difficult to complete semi accidentally tapped into something brilliant the vast heritage and intellectual history of the concept of walking in fiction philosophy pilgrimage performance and protest Kagen examines wandering in a series of games that vary widely in terms of genre mechanics themes player base studio size and funding giving close readings to Return of the Obra Dinn Eastshade Ritual of the Moon 80 Days Heaven's Vault Death Stranding and The Last of Us Part II Exploring the connotations of wandering within these different game worlds she considers how ideologies of work gender colonialism and death inflect the ways we wander through digital spaces Overlapping and intersecting each provides a multifaceted lens through which to understand what wandering does lacks implies and offers Kagen's account will attune game designers players and scholars to the myriad possibilities of the wandering ludic body

Digressions and the Human Imagination Morten Nielsen, 2024-09-30 Digressions and the Human Imagination makes a significant contribution to our anthropological knowledge about human creativity The creative force of the human imagination is widely considered as a key ingredient in understanding how social and cultural transformations occur And yet what we know about the nature of creative processes is surprisingly limited Taking their cue from literary studies the contributors to this volume explore digression as human creativity's main impulse They offer a series of experimental explorations of digression in different arenas of social life literature conversations myths humour art and wayfinding In their examination of the relationship between creativity and digressive processes the contributions challenge and eventually collapse conventional distinctions between artistic and scientific imaginaries This book articulates with clarity the freedom and joy of wandering off in new directions but also the potentially transgressive and even revolutionary character that digression has when it is put to work through the creativity of the human imagination It will be relevant for anthropologists and other scholars from across the humanities and social sciences with an interest in creativity

A Theory of Narrative Alojzija Zupan Sosič, 2022-09-08 Relying on the structure and methodology of classical and postclassical narratology this book explores the phenomena of story and narrative narrator focalization character time and space as well as the beginning and the ending of a narrative It upgrades the theory of the unreliable narrator and introduces three new categories that have until now been exclusively used to refer to unreliable narrators namely commentators interpreters and evaluators

Saturn's Moons Jo Catling, 2017-07-05 The German novelist poet and critic W G Sebald 1944 2001 has in recent years attracted a phenomenal international following for his evocative prose works such as Die Ausgewanderten The Emigrants Die Ringe des Saturn The Rings of Saturn and Austerlitz spellbinding elegiac narratives which through their deliberate blurring of genre boundaries and provocative use of photography explore questions of Heimat and exile memory and loss history and natural history art and nature Saturn's Moons a W G Sebald Handbook brings together in one volume a wealth of new critical and visual material on Sebald's life and works covering the many facets and phases of his literary and academic careers as teacher as scholar and critic as colleague and as collaborator on translation Lavishly illustrated the Handbook also contains a number of rediscovered short pieces by W G Sebald hitherto unpublished interviews a catalogue of his library and selected poems and tributes as well as extensive primary and secondary bibliographies details of audiovisual material and interviews and a chronology of life and works Drawing on a range of original sources from Sebald's Nachlass the most important part of which is now held in the Deutsches Literaturarchiv Marbach Saturn's Moons will be an invaluable sourcebook for future Sebald studies in English and German alike complementing and augmenting recent critical works on subjects such as history memory modernity reader response and the visual The contributors include Mark Anderson Anthea Bell Ulrich von Buelow Jo Catling Michael Hulse Florian Radvan Uwe Schuette Clive Scott Richard Sheppard Gordon Turner Stephen Watts and Luke Williams Jo Catling teaches in the School of Literature at the University of East Anglia and Richard Hibbitt in the Department of French at the University of Leeds

Incomparable Realms Jeremy Robbins, 2022-06-20 A sumptuous history of Golden Age Spain that explores the irresistible tension between heavenly and earthly realms Incomparable Realms offers a vision of Spanish culture and society during the so called Golden Age the period from 1500 to 1700 when Spain unexpectedly rose to become the dominant European power But in what ways was this a Golden Age and for whom The relationship between the Habsburg monarchy and the Roman Catholic Church shaped the period with both constructing narratives to bind Spanish society together Incomparable Realms unpicks the impact of these two historical forces on thought and culture and examines the people and perspectives such powerful projections sought to eradicate The book shows that the tension between the heavenly and earthly realms and in particular the struggle between the spiritual and the corporeal defines Golden Age culture In art and literature mystical theology and moral polemic ideology doctrine and everyday life the problematic pull of the body and the material world is the unacknowledged force behind early modern Spain Life is a dream as the title of Calder n s famous play of the period proclaimed but there is always a body dreaming it Narratives Unsettled Samuel Frederick,2012-08-31

Narratives Unsettled argues by way of close readings of three very different German language writers that only if we conceive of narrativity unburdened by plot can we properly account for radical forms of digression The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond,2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels Affective Geographies Paul Michael Johnson,2021-02-19 By reading the works of Miguel de Cervantes through the history of emotion this book defies a series of long standing commonplaces about the author s writing and the Mediterranean region at large
