Gigli, Nathan D. Zasler, 2004 The miracles of modern medicine have created scenarios in which patients remain dependent on life sustaining treatments for years Possibly one of the most dramatic examples of such a clinical scenario is the vegetative state VS a clinical condition that occurs when an individual enters a neurological state marked by periods of wakefulness and arousal but without associated demonstrable awareness consciousness There is extensive debate as to whether assisted nutrition and hydration ANH should be withdrawn from patients in VS permanent or otherwise This book will provide cutting edge information to many scientists and clinicians interested in this clinical topic It could also be a source of anthropological philosophical and ethical reflection The many dilemmas raised by the medical religious ethical and societal response to persons in VS go well beyond the clinical condition itself and have profound implications for the fundamental values in our global society It is for this reason that the authors thought it was important to also provide a vehicle not only for scientific and bioethical reflections but also for the religious views and tenants of Judeo Christian thought on the controversial topic of VS and inherent in that conversation the controversy of withdrawal and withholding of care Electrochemical and Metallurgical Industry Eugene Franz Roeber, Howard Coon Parmelee, 1905 Congressional Record United States.
