Dimensions Difference Bodies Continental Philosophy:

The Dimensions of Difference Caroline Godart, 2015-12-11 The Dimensions of Difference departs from traditional takes on feminist film criticism and in particular from the psychoanalytical focus on the gaze to examine the question of sexual difference through three axes space time and bodies These are some of the most fundamental elements of cinema which deploys the bodies of actors through space and time for instance through camerawork and editing While this approach may not at first sight seem to be related to questions of gender and sexuality Caroline Godart demonstrates its relevance to feminist film studies by weaving together careful analyses of space time and bodies in women's cinema with close readings of the same concepts in the works of three philosophers Luce Irigaray Henri Bergson and Gilles Deleuze The book investigates how certain films generate a cinematic experience of sexual difference and frames this analysis within a careful philosophical inquiry into the notion of alterity itself These tools provide fruitful resources for feminist inquiry giving insights into sexual difference as it operates within film aesthetics and beyond cinema in the world at large The result is a compelling reflection on feminism film form and continental philosophy Continental Philosophy and Modern Theology David Brown, 2012-01-18

The Bloomsbury Companion to Continental Philosophy John Ó Maoilearca, Beth Lord, 2013-02-14 Originally published as the Continuum Companion to Continental Philosophy this book offers the definitive guide to contemporary Continental thought It covers all the most pressing and important themes and categories in the field areas that have continued to attract interest historically as well as topics that have emerged more recently as active areas of research Twelve specially commissioned essays from an international team of experts reveal where important work continues to be done in the field and valuably how the various topics intersect Featuring a series of indispensable research tools including an A to Z of key terms and concepts a chronology and a guide to practical research in the field this is the essential reference tool for anyone working in and studying Continental Philosophy The Bodily Dimension in Thinking Daniela Vallega-Neu, 2012-02-01 Daniela Vallega Neu questions the ontological meaning of body and thinking by carefully taking into account how we come to experience thought bodily She engages six prominent figures of the Western philosophical tradition Plato Nietzsche Scheler Merleau Ponty Heidegger and Foucault and considers how they understand thinking to occur in relation to the body as well as how their thinking is itself bodily Through a deconstructive and performative reading she explores how their thinking reveals a bodily dimension that is prior to what classical metaphysics comes to conceive as mind body duality Thus Vallega Neu uncovers the bodily dimension that sustains their thought and their work As she contends the trace of the body in our thought not only exposes the strangers we are to ourselves but may also lead to a new understanding of how we come to be who we are in relation to the world we live in Actological Readings in Continental Philosophy Malcolm Torry, 2023-01-12 Actological Readings in Continental Philosophy is what it says it is The book asks how we might understand the writings of a number of continental philosophers actologically that is with reality understood as action in changing patterns rather than as beings that change It also asks how the different continental philosophies might enable us to develop an actology an understanding of reality as action in changing patterns The philosophers whom we study are Immanuel Kant Friedrich Nietzsche Edmund Husserl Martin Heidegger Emmanuel Levinas Gilles Deleuze Hans Georg Gadamer Maurice Merleau Ponty Gaston Bachelard Michel Foucault and Michel Serres A whole new way of understanding reality casts new light on their philosophies and raises and answers some significant new questions A Dictionary of Continental

Post-Continental Philosophy John Mullarkey, 2006-01-01 Post Continental Philosophy outlines the shift in Continental thought over the last 20 years through the work of four central figures Gilles Deleuze Alain Badiou Michel Henry and Francois Laruelle Though they follow seemingly different methodologies and agendas each insists on the need for a return to the category of immanence if philosophy is to have any future at all Rejecting both the German phenomenological tradition of transcendence of the Ego Being Consciousness Alterity or Flesh as well as the French Structuralist valorisation of Language they instead take the immanent categories of biology Deleuze mathematics Badiou affectivity Henry and axiomatic science Laruelle as focal points for a renewal of thought Consequently Continental philosophy is taken in a new direction that engages science and nature with a refreshingly critical and non reductive approach to life set theory embodiment and knowledge However each of these new philosophies of immanence still regards what the other is doing as transcendent representation raising the question of what this return to immanence really means John Mullarkey s analysis provides a startling answer By teasing out their internal differences he discovers that the only thing that can be said of immanence without falling back into transcendent representation seems not to be a saying at all but a showing a depiction through lines Because each of these philosophies also places a special value on the diagram the common ground of immanence is that occupied by the philosophical diagram rather than the word The heavily illustrated final chapter of the book literally outlines how a mode of philosophical discourse might proceed when using diagrams to think immanence Thinking Life with Luce Irigaray Gail M. Schwab, 2020-04-01 Featuring a highly accessible essay from Irigaray herself this volume explores her philosophy of life and living Life thinking an important contemporary trend in philosophy and in women s and gender studies stands in contrast to philosophy s traditional grounding in death exemplified in the work of philosophers such as Socrates Plato and Schopenhauer The contributors to Thinking Life with Luce Irigaray consider Irigaray s criticisms of the traditional Western philosophy of death including its either/or dualisms and binary logic as well as some of Irigaray s solutions for cultivating life The book is comprehensive in its analyses of Irigaray s relationship to classical and contemporary philosophers writers and artists and produces extremely fruitful intersections between Irigaray and figures as diverse as Homer and Plato Alexis Wright the First Nations novelist of Australia and twentieth century French philosophers like Sartre Badiou Deleuze and Guattari It also develops Irigaray s relationship to the arts with essays on theater poetry architecture sculpture and film

Medicine and Society, New Perspectives in Continental Philosophy Darian Meacham, 2015-05-22 This volume addresses some of the most prominent questions in contemporary bioethics and philosophy of medicine liberal eugenics enhancement the normal and the pathological the classification of mental illness the relation between genetics disease and the political sphere the experience of illness and disability and the sense of the subject of bioethical inquiry itself All of these issues are addressed from a continental perspective drawing on a rich tradition of inquiry into these questions in the fields of phenomenology philosophical hermeneutics French epistemology critical theory and post structuralism At the same time the contributions engage with the Anglo American debate resulting in a fruitful and constructive conversation that not only shows the depth and breadth of continental perspectives in bioethics and medicine but also opens new avenues of discussion and exploration

For decades European philosophers have offered important insights into the relation between the practices of medicine the concept of illness and society more broadly understood These interventions have generally striven to be both historically nuanced and accessible to non experts From Georges Canguilhem s seminal The Normal and the Pathological Michel Foucault s lectures on madness sexuality and biopolitics Hans Jonas s deeply thoughtful essays on the right to die life extension and ethics in a technological age Hans Georg Gadamer s lectures on The Enigma of Health and more recently Jürgen Habermas s carefully nuanced interventions on the question of liberal eugenics these thinkers have sought to engage the wider public as much as their fellow philosophers on questions of paramount importance to current bioethical and social political debate The essays contained here continue this tradition of engagement and accessibility In the best practices of European philosophy the contributions in this volume aim to engage with and stimulate a broad spectrum of readers not just experts In doing so the volume offers a showcase of the richness and rigor of continental perspectives on medicine and society
