Digital Labour and Karl Marx Christian Fuchs, 2014-01-03 How is labour changing in the age of computers the Internet and social media such as Facebook Google YouTube and Twitter In Digital Labour and Karl Marx Christian Fuchs attempts to answer that question crafting a systematic critical theorisation of labour as performed in the capitalist ICT industry Relying on a range of global case studies from unpaid social media prosumers or Chinese hardware assemblers at Foxconn to miners in the Democratic Republic of Congo Fuchs sheds light on the labour costs of digital media examining the way ICT corporations exploit human labour and the impact of this exploitation on the lives bodies and minds of workers

Communication, Cultural and Media Studies John Hartley, 2019-09-12 Now in its fifth edition this pioneering volume of Routledge's Key Guides series offers clear explanations of key concepts showing where they came from what they are used for and why they provoke discussion or disagreement The new edition is extensively revised to keep pace with rapidly evolving developments in communication culture and media providing topical and authoritative guidance to transformational shifts from broadcast to digital technologies national to global media and disciplinary to diverse knowledge It includes Nearly 250 entries covering what and how to study across this multi disciplinary field 50 new entries from algorithm and assemblage dance and data to woke and worldbuilding Updated references with 500 items and suggestions for further reading Revisions updates and examples throughout For students and seasoned scholars alike Communication Cultural and Media Studies is an invaluable resource in an ever changing landscape Being a Young Citizen in Estonia Anne Kaun,2013 The book gives an intriguing insight into how young people in Estonia twenty years after the establishment of democracy perceive their own role as citizens It does so in a theoretical framework that stresses the embeddedness of the civic experiences in a media dominated environment thus closely linking civic and media experiences Based on the analysis of both qualitative interview data and a relatively new method of using the internet as a complementary tool for engaging with open ended diaries the study explores the extent to which young citizens experience the media as being interwoven with their everyday lives and in fact constitutive of their social reality as citizens With its particular focus on young Estonians i e on a generation that has been brought up in a context of rapid political economic and social change and that is well known for its fascination with new communication technologies the book is a valuable contribution to the growing international research on media and civic experiences
