Dilemmas Of Hydropower Development In Vietnam Between Dam Induced Displacement And Sustainable Development:

Dilemmas of hydropower development in Vietnam Ty Pham Huu, 2015-01-13 Hydropower is one of the biggest controversies in Vietnam in recent decades because of its adverse environmental and social consequences especially negative impacts on displaced people who make way for hydropower dam construction This book explains the controversies related to hydropower development in Vietnam in order to make policy recommendations for equitable and sustainable development The book focuses on the analysis of emerging issues such as land acquisition compensation for losses displacement and resettlement support for livelihood development and benefit sharing from hydropower development The analysis emphasizes the role of different stakeholders in the decision making process for hydropower development in Vietnam as a means to find a better governance model Development-Induced Displacement and Resettlement in Vietnam Nguyen Quy Nghi, Jane Singer, 2022-09-29 This book explores the complex legal cultural economic and human rights issues associated with development induced displacement and resettlement DIDR in Vietnam As in many parts of the world urban expansion and large scale infrastructure projects in Vietnam often rely on forced land acquisition which can result in the involuntary resettlement of households and entire communities This book examines the adequacy of monetary and in kind compensation and the support that resettles need for successful integration into host communities and for sustainable livelihoods and improved well being It presents new paradigms and practices that place affected households at the centre of project planning and implementation to fully address the needs of the most vulnerable This includes women the elderly and ethnic minority groups Bringing together research evidence practical experience and insights of distinguished researchers this book is the first to systematically examine DIDR in Vietnam a single party state seeking to balance state interests with the demands of investors and civil society for human rights and participation by affected people Combining the latest evidence and research findings on development induced displacement and resettlement in Vietnam with practical experiences in project implementation this book will be a useful guide for researchers across development migration and Southeast Asian Studies as well as practitioners and policy makers Its lessons will also be relevant to other countries facing rapid development The Mekong: A Socio-legal Approach to River Basin Development Ben Boer, Philip Hirsch, Fleur Johns, Ben Saul, Natalia Scurrah, 2015-12-22 An international river basin is an ecological system an economic thoroughfare a geographical area a font of life and livelihoods a geopolitical network and often a cultural icon It is also a socio legal phenomenon This book is the first detailed study of an international river basin from a socio legal perspective The Mekong River Basin which sustains approximately 70 million people across Cambodia China Laos Myanmar Thailand and Vietnam provides a prime example of the socio legal complexities of governing a transboundary river and its tributaries The book applies its socio legal analysis to bring a fresh approach to understanding conflicts surrounding water governance in the Mekong River Basin The authors

describe the wide range of uses being made of legal doctrine and legal argument in ongoing disputes surrounding hydropower development in the Basin putting to rest lingering caricatures of a single ASEAN way of navigating conflict They call into question some of the common assumptions concerning the relationship between law and development The book also sheds light on important questions concerning the global hybridization or crossover of public and private power and its ramifications for water governance With current debates and looming conflicts over water governance globally and over shared rivers in particular these issues could not be more pressing

The ^AOxford Handbook of Land Politics Saturnino M. Borrás, Jennifer C. Franco, 2025-08-29 Access to land in all its multiple meanings is necessarily diverse complex and contentious and facilitating and maintaining such access constitutes a mosaic of social relations and institutional instruments rather than the minimalist and simplistic reduction of land to land property that in turn tends to be interpreted always as individual private property The Oxford Handbook of Land Politics offers heterodox analytical tools to help the reader make sense of the complexity of the politics of land

Handbook of Translocal Development and Global Mobilities Annelies Zoomers, Maggi Leung, Kei Otsuki, Guus Van Westen, 2021-06-25 This timely Handbook demonstrates that global linkages flows and circulations merit a more central place in theorization about development Calling for a mobilities turn it challenges the sedentarist assumptions which still underlie much policy making and planning for the future

Community Relocation, Disasters and Climate Change in Asia-Pacific Region Suguru Mori, 2024-07-11 The book uses the experience of the Great East Japan Earthquake 2011 to realise community relocation with human rights and ethics around the world This book has been written with an emphasis on the following two objectives The primary objective is to explore practical planning theory To carry out planned community relocation it is imperative to fully understand the a background and process of community relocation and b the resulting impact on people s lives Based on the problems or opportunities identified we aim to propose practical knowledge and methods for social implementation to be used during the preparation of future development plans for community relocation The other objective is the consideration of planning theory based on the different contexts in which community relocation takes place The book aims to propose measures to carry out community relocation before and after disasters that can be executed in a democratic world by upholding the rights of each individual and respecting the social life of the community

Development-Induced Displacement and Resettlement Bogumil Terminski, 2014-05-01 This book explores the issue of development induced resettlement with a particular emphasis on the humanitarian legal and social aspects of this problem Today so called development induced displacement and resettlement DIDR is one of the dominant causes of internal spatial mobility worldwide Each year over 15 million people are forced to abandon their homes to make space for economic development infrastructure The construction of dams and irrigation projects the expansion of communication networks urbanization and re urbanization the extraction and transportation of mineral resources forced evictions in urban areas and population redistribution schemes count among the many possible causes Terminski aims to present the issue of development caused displacement as a highly diverse global social problem occurring in all regions of the world As a human rights issue it poses a challenge to public international law and to institutions providing humanitarian assistance A significant part of this book is devoted to the current dynamics of development caused resettlement in Europe which has been neglected in the academic literature so far The Political

Economy of Hydropower in Southwest China and Beyond Jean-François Rousseau, Sabrina

Habich-Sobiegalla, 2021-01-15 This book conceptualises the ongoing hydropower expansion in Southwest China as a socio political and transnational project transcending the construction of dams Chapters in this volume are organised around three sections spanning hydropower and resettlement governance rural livelihoods and international relations connected to China s hydropower expansion Dam projects of various scales are analysed as infrastructure projects that shape peoples livelihoods the environment and China s relations with Southeast Asia Africa and Latin America Contemporary Economic Issues in
