Commonwealth Local Government Handbook 2004 Commonwealth Local Government Handbook 2004:

New Century Local Government Graham Sansom, Peter McKinlay, 2013-09-30 Democratic decentralisation through conventional institutions of local government is facing increasing challenges whether from financial pressures questions of representativeness difficult central local relations and from a perhaps growing belief that local government has failed to realise its potential and there may be better ways of achieving societal goals It is clear there is need to contemplate quite radical change to ensure local government becomes or remains fit for purpose This collection of papers illustrates the way in which the role of local government is evolving in different parts of the Commonwealth and provides practical examples of new local government at work It showcases emerging practice and highlights success stories from new ways of working and challenges confronting local government in both developed and developing countries New Century Local Government makes a very valuable contribution to helping understand the changing role of local government and will ensure that practitioners are up to date with the most innovative initiatives in local government planning and administration Commonwealth Local Government Handbook, 2004 Handbook comprised of Commonwealth country profiles focusing on local governance The Commonwealth Yearbook 2005 Richard Green, 2005-09 The Commonwealth Yearbook 2005 is an essential guide to the 53 member countries of the Commonwealth and the many organizations that work to promote international cooperation among the governments professions and cultures of nearly two billion people Divided we Fall: An Insider's Perspective on Local Government Amalgamations Dr Ian Tiley, 2012-12-11 Recent Australian local government structural reform has manifested as council amalgamations and predominantly as imposed merger processes This book examines council amalgamations across Australia over the past two decades and uncovers the case of council amalgamation in the NSW Clarence Valley Council CVC since 2004 The case of forced amalgamation of four general purpose and two county councils could have been a recipe for chaos instead this book describes the gains and the challenges Writing from deep seated knowledge of local government this book details the net positive economic outcomes and financial benefits against measurable indicators and describes the impacts on local democracy Based on detailed research this long term local government insider perspective will be of value to all those interested in driving change through local government reform Principles for Local Government Legislation Graham Sansom, 2013 This study is designed to help local government practitioners in Pacific island countries review and strengthen their existing legislative and regulatory frameworks It identifies best practice examines case studies of Fiji Solomon Islands and Samoa and presents ten key principles for effective legislation Comparative E-Government Christopher G. Reddick, 2010-08-19 Comparative E Government examines the impact of information and communication technology ICT on governments throughout the world It focuses on the adoption of e government both by comparing different countries and by focusing on individual countries and the success and challenges that they have faced With 32 chapters from leading e government scholars and practitioners from around the world there is representation of developing and developed countries and their different stages of e government adoption Part I compares the adoption of e government in two or more countries The purpose of these chapters is to discern the development of e government by comparing different countries and their individual experiences Part II provides a more in depth focus on case studies of e government adoption in select countries Part III the last part of the book examines emerging innovations and technologies in the adoption of e government in different countries Some of the emerging technologies are the new social media movement the development of e participation interoperability and geographic information systems GIS

Post-conflict Reconstruction and Local Government Paul Jackson,Gareth Wall,2020-06-09 The subject of local government and post conflict reconstruction sits at the intersection of several interrelated research areas notably conflict peacebuilding governance and political economy This volume addresses a gap in the academic literature whilst decentralisation is frequently included in peace agreements the actual scope and role of local government is far less frequently discussed This gap remains despite a considerable literature on local government in developing countries more generally particularly with regard to decentralisation but also despite a considerable and growing literature on post conflict reconstruction This volume provides a mixture of case study cross case studies practitioner reflection and conceptual material on the function of local government in the context of decentralisation in post conflict countries from both academics and policy makers This collection of in depth single and multi country case study analysis is complemented by practitioner reflections and framed within the 2030 Agenda building on the New Urban Agenda and particularly the Sustainable Development Goal 16 to promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development provide access to justice for all and build effective accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels The chapters in this book were originally published in the online journal Third World Thematics

Foundations for Local Governance Fumihiko Saito,2008-01-15 Successful reforms need coherent approaches in which a range of stakeholders are willing to share responsibilities and resources in order to achieve the ultimate outcome of poverty reduction in developing countries This book provides a framework to access intended outcomes generated by decentralization measures implemented in Asian and African countries It is based on comparative analyses of different experiences of decentralization measures in six developing countries
