Damals Bei Uns Daheim:

A Stranger in My Own Country Hans Fallada, 2015-01-20 I lived the same life as everyone else the life of ordinary people the masses Sitting in a prison cell in the autumn of 1944 the German author Hans Fallada sums up his life under the National Socialist dictatorship the time of inward emigration Under conditions of close confinement in constant fear of discovery he writes himself free from the nightmare of the Nazi years He records his thoughts about spying and denunciation about the threat to his livelihood and his literary work and about the fate of many friends and contemporaries The confessional mode did not come naturally to Fallada but in the mental and emotional distress of 1944 self reflection became a survival strategy Fallada's frank and sometimes provocative memoirs were thought for many years to have been lost They are published here for the first time

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Literature's Elsewheres Annette Gilbert, 2022-04-05 An examination of a series of diverse radical and experimental international works from the 1950s to the present What is a literary work In Literature's Elsewheres Annette Gilbert tackles this question by deploying an extended concept of literature examining a series of diverse radical experimental works from the 1950s to the present that occupy the liminal zone between art and literature These works by American Artist Allison Parrish Natalie Czech Stephanie Syjuco Fiona Banner Elfriede Jelinek Dan Graham Robert Barry George Brecht and others represent a pluralized literary practice that imagines a different literature emerging from its elsewheres Investigating a work's coming into being its transition from text to work as a social object and pragmatic category of literary communication Gilbert probes the assumptions and foundations that underpin literature including the ideologies and power structures that prop it up She offers a snapshot from a period of recent literary and art history when such central concepts as originality and authorship were questioned and experimental literary practices ranged from concrete poetry and Oulipo to conceptual writing and appropriation literature She examines works that are dematerialized site specific unique copies of other works and institutional critiques Considering the inequalities exclusions and privileges inscribed in literature she documents the power of experimental literature to attack these norms and challenges the field s canonical geographic boundaries by examining artists with roots in North and South America East Asia and Western and Eastern Europe The cross pollination of literary and art criticism enriches both fields With Literature s Elsewheres Gilbert explores what art can t see about the literary and what literature has overlooked in the arts

The German Novel, 1939-1944 H. Boeschstein, 1949-12-15 This book begins the large task of sorting out the vast number of German literary works which the war has piled up before us The author has culled over four hundred novels and critical works and by indicating the numbers and content of the more significant novels and some of their stylistic characteristics he has shortened the task of future research If this investigation provides a fair indication it appears that the widely held conviction that German publishers brought out nothing but trash during the war years is mistaken By now students of literature should be in a sufficiently intelligent and tolerant mood to accept some detailed evidence and to begin to scrutinize it objectively The present study is intended as a step in that direction
