Dancing Lessons For The Advanced In Age New York Review Books Classics:

Dancing Lessons for the Advanced in Age Bohumil Hrabal, 2012-04-25 Rake drunkard aesthete gossip raconteur extraordinaire the narrator of Bohumil Hrabal's rambling rambunctious masterpiece Dancing Lessons for the Advanced in Age is all these and more Speaking to a group of sunbathing women who remind him of lovers past this elderly rou tells the story of his life or at least unburdens himself of a lifetime's worth of stories Thus we learn of amatory conquests and humiliations of scandals both private and public of military adventures and domestic feuds of what things were like in the days of the monarchy and how they've changed since As the book tumbles restlessly forward and the comic tone takes on darker shadings we realize we are listening to a man talking as much out of desperation as from exuberance Hrabal one of the great Czech writers of the twentieth century as well as an inveterate haunter of Prague's pubs and football stadiums developed a unique method which he termed palavering whereby characters gab and soliloquize with abandon Part drunken boast part soul rending confession part metaphysical poem on the nature of love and time this astonishing novel which unfolds in a single monumental sentence shows why he has earned the admiration of such writers as Milan Kundera John Banville and Louise Erdrich

The Little Town Where Time Stood Still Bohumil Hrabal, 2015-06-30 The Little Town Where Time Stood Still contains two linked narratives by the incomparable Bohumil Hrabal whom Milan Kundera has described as Czechoslovakia's greatest writer Cutting It Short is set before World War II in a small country town and it relates the scandalizing escapades of Mary ka the flamboyant wife of Francin who manages the local brewery Mary ka drinks She rides a bicycle letting her long hair fly She butchers pigs frolics in blood and leads on the local butcher She's a Madame Bovary without apologies driven to keep up with the new fast paced mechanized modern world that is obliterating whatever sleepy pieties are left over from the defunct Austro Hungarian Empire The Little Town Where Time Stood Still is told by Mary ka and Francin's son and concerns the exploits of his Uncle Pepin who holds his own against the occupying Nazis but succumbs to silence as the new post World War II Communist order cements its colorless control over daily life Together Hrabal's rousing and outrageous yarns stand as a hilarious and heartbreaking tribute to the always imperiled sweetness of lust love and life

My Country Is Literature Chandrabhas Choudhury, 2021-11-30 A book is only one text but it is many books It is a different book for each of its readers My Anna Karenina is not your Anna Karenina your A House for Mr Biswas is not the one on my shelf When we think of a favourite book we recall not only the shape of the story the characters who touched our hearts the rhythm and texture of the sentences We recall our own circumstances when we read it where we bought it and for how much what kind of joy or solace it provided how scenes from the story began to intermingle with scenes from our life how it roused us to anger or indignation or allowed us to make our peace with some great private discord This is the second life of the book its life in our life In his early twenties the novelist Chandras Choudhury found himself in the position of most young people who want to write impractical hard up ill at ease in the world Like most people who love to read his most radiant hours were inside the pages of a book Seeking to combine his love of writing with his love of reading he became an adept of a trade that is mainly transacted lying down that is he became a book reviewer Pleasure independence aesthetic rapture even a modest livelihood all these were the rewards of being a worker bee of literature ingesting the output of the publishers of the world in great quantities and trying to explain in the pages of newspapers and magazines exactly what makes a book leave a mark on the soul Even as Choudhury's own novels began to be published he continued to write about other writers books his contemporaries at home and abroad the great Indian writers of the past the relationship of the reading life in particular the novel to selfhood and democracy all the ways in which literature sings the truths of the human heart My Country Is Literature brings together the best of his literary criticism a long train of perceptive essays on writers as diverse as VS Naipaul and Orhan Pamuk Gandhi and Nehru Bibhutibhushan Bandyopadhyay and Jhumpa Lahiri The book also contains an introductory essay describing Choudhury's book saturated years as a young writer in Mumbai the joys and sorrows and stratagems of the book reviewer's trade and the ways in which literature is made as much by readers as by writers Delightfully punctuated with 15 portraits of writers by the artist Golak Khandual My Country Is Literature is essential reading for everyone who believes that books are the most beautiful things in life Lost Time Jozef Czapski, 2018-11-06 The first translation of painter and writer J zef Czapski's inspiring lectures on Proust first delivered in a prison camp in the Soviet Union during World War II During the Second World War as a prisoner of war in a Soviet camp and with nothing but memory to go on the Polish artist and soldier J zef Czapski brought Marcel Proust's In Search of Lost Time to life for an audience of prison inmates In a series of lectures Czapski described the arc and import of Proust's masterpiece sketched major and minor characters in striking detail and movingly evoked the work's originality depth and beauty Eric Karpeles has translated this brilliant and altogether unparalleled feat of the critical imagination into English for the first time and in a thoughtful introduction he brings out how in reckoning with Proust's great meditation on memory Czapski helped his fellow officers to remember that there was a world apart from the world of the camp Proust had staked the art of the novelist against the losses of a lifetime and the imminence of death Recalling that triumphant wager unfolding like Sheherazade the intricacies of Proust's world night after night Czapski showed to men at the end of their tether that the past remained present and there was a future in which to hope

Earthly Signs Marina

Tsvetaeva, 2017-12-05 A moving collection of autobiographical essays from a Russian poet and refugee of the Bolshevik Revolution Marina Tsvetaeva ranks with Anna Akhmatova Osip Mandelstam and Boris Pasternak as one of Russia's greatest twentieth century poets Her suicide at the age of forty eight was the tragic culmination of a life buffeted by political upheaval The essays collected in this volume are based on diaries she kept during the turbulent years of the Revolution and Civil War In them she records conversations of women in the markets soldiers and peasants on the train traveling from the Crimea to Moscow in October 1917 fighting in the streets of Moscow a frantic scramble with co workers to dig frozen potatoes out of a cellar and poetry readings organized by a newly minted Soviet bohemia Alone in Moscow with two small children no income and a missing husband Tsvetaeva struggled to feed her daughters one of whom died of malnutrition in an orphanage find employment in the Soviet bureaucracy and keep writing poetry Her keen and ruthless eye observes with compassion and humor bringing the social economic and cultural chaos of the period to life These autobiographical writings not only give a vivid eyewitness account of Russian history but provide vital insights into the workings of Tsvetaeva's unique poetics Includes black and white photographs

Amsterdam Stories Nescio, 2012-03-20 No one has written more feelingly and more beautifully than Nescio about the madness and sadness courage and vulnerability of youth its big plans and vague longings not to mention the binges crashes and marathon walks and talks No one for that matter has written with such pristine clarity about the radiating canals of Amsterdam and the cloud swept landscape of the Netherlands Who was Nescio Nescio Latin for I don't know was the pen name of J H F Gr nloh the highly successful director of the Holland Bombay Trading Company and a father of four someone who knew more than enough about respectable maturity Only in his spare time and under the cover of a pseudonym as if commemorating a lost self did he let himself go producing over the course of his lifetime a handful of utterly original stories that contain some of the most luminous pages in modern literature This is the first English translation of Nescio's stories
