 profession of faith and most recently cruelty sovereignty and capital punishment Strongly linked by their attention to performatives and the as if the essays show the necessity of thinking beyond the category of acts that are possible for a subject Derrida argues forcefully that thought must engage with the impossible that is the order of the unforeseeable event the absolute future still to come This acute awareness of the limits of performative programs informs the essays throughout and attunes them closely to events of a world undergoing globalization The first essay History of the Lie reviews some classic and modern definitions of the lie Augustine Rousseau Kant Koyr Arendt while renewing questions about what is called lying
