Comprehension Going Forward Ellin Oliver Keene, 2011 Examines the characteristics of effective comprehension instruction explores the range of applications it has for students and discusses areas for improvement Developing Readers in the Academic Disciplines Doug Buehl, 2023-10-10 Being literate in an academic discipline is more than being able to read and comprehend text you can think speak and write as a historian scientist mathematician or artist Author Doug Buehl strips away the one size fits all approach to content area literacy and presents an instructional model for disciplinary literacy which honors the discipline and helps students learn within that area In this revised second edition Developing Readers in the Academic Disciplines shows how to help students adjust their thinking to comprehend a range of complex texts that fall outside their reading comfort zones Inside you ll find Instructional tools that adapt generic literacy practices to discipline specific variations Strategies for frontloading instruction to activate and build background knowledge New approaches for encouraging inquiry around disciplinary texts In depth exploration of the role of argumentation in informational text Numerous examples from science mathematics history and social studies English language arts and related arts to show you what vibrant learning looks like in various classroom settings Designed to be a natural companion to Buehl s Classroom Strategies for Interactive Learning Developing Readers in the Academic Disciplines introduces teachers from all disciplines to new kinds of thinking and ultimately teaching that helps students achieve new levels of understanding

Literacy Workshop Maria Walther, Karen Biggs-Tucker, 2023-10-10 The Literacy Workshop Where Reading and Writing Converge is a first of its kind resource that offers a practical process for creating an integrated literacy workshop using demonstration lessons that align with current curriculum standards In this forward thinking book authors Maria Walther and Karen Biggs Tucker share what they ve learned over countless reading and writing workshops and combine into one literacy workshop The authors demonstrate how you can save valuable classroom time while still empowering students to uncover exciting connections in their learning leading to stronger more motivational readers and writers By weaving the common threads of literacy learning together you can increase the time your students spend engaged in authentic reading and writing Inside you ll find the following A clear succinct explanation of the literacy workshop structure how to get started and how to determine the best time to begin the merge 50 demonstration lesson plans appropriate for both primary and intermediate grade levels that use strategies incorporating elements from recommended fiction and nonfiction anchor texts Substantial printable resources and online tools to help make this instructional shift as smooth as possible From the big picture to small helpful details The Literacy Workshop will be your guide as you blur the lines between your reading and writing workshops creating space for students to apply their learning and practice the habits behaviors and actions of literate and engaged citizens The Game Plan Daron W. Kennett, Kim Suzanne Rathke, Kristin van Brunt, 2015-12-03 The Game Plan is the first professional book that gives secondary administrators literacy coaches and other instructional leaders a step by step blueprint for implementing the Common Core Literacy Standards for History Social Studies Science and the Technical Subjects and other college and career readiness standards The book provides principals district supervisors instructional coaches and other leaders with a coherent realistic plan to build a school wide culture of literacy instruction data use and PLC based cycles of reflection planning and action This multi year plan is built on a continuous cycle of improvement philosophy and is modular in nature allowing leaders to rearrange substitute and modify the plan to meet the needs of any secondary school Organized in two parts the first section of The Game Plan lays out a semester by semester flexible configuration for introducing implementing and supporting the literacy standards over the course of six full school years this section also includes detailed guidelines for creating a comprehensive assessment plan to gather analyze and act on school data The second section includes instructional tools and strategies for reading writing vocabulary and other aspects of the literacy standards that teachers in all subject areas can use

"I Hate Reading" Justin M. Stygles, 2022-09-19 It can take a lifetime to eradicate a reader's shame or it can take one great teacher Shame bound readers want someone to notice them It's true But then what does a teacher do to help students Justin Stygles found fresh answers in Gershen Kaufman's seminal research on shame and applied it to his teaching The results proved to him and now us that building relationships and taking deliberate actions to alleviate shame is crucial With this remarkable book Stygles shows us how to build an interpersonal bridge with students and make vulnerability okay But make no mistake disengaged readers need to feel competent before they fully buy in and so the author packs the book with powerful instructional ideas Learn to Spot all the distress signals including withdrawal perfectionism and compliance Help students see that they are not permanently locked out of a reading life Use assessment instruments to note and celebrate incremental change Plan mini units that develop skills in concert with engagement Design small group experiences that are free of levels and other shame inducing labels Pump up independent reading with scaffolding and sociability Harness writing about reading to convince students of their uniqueness The shame factor is real It's time we meet it head on with innovation and the best thinking from multiple research fields I Hate Reading is the tool that does just that

Reading at a Crossroads? Rand J. Spiro, Michael DeSchryver, Michelle Schira Hagerman, Paul M. Morsink, Penny Thompson, 2015-03-05 The Internet is transforming the experience of reading and learning through reading Is this transformation effecting a radical change in reading processes as readers synthesize understandings from fragments across multiple texts Or conversely is the Internet merely a new place to use the same reading skills and processes developed through experience with traditional print based media Are the changes in reading processes a matter of degree or are they fundamentally new And if so how must reading theory research and instruction adjust This volume brings together distinguished experts from the fields of reading research teacher education educational psychology cognitive science rhetoric and composition digital humanities and educational technology to address these questions Every question is not answered in every chapter How could they be But every contributor has many thoughtful things to say about a subset of these important questions Together they add up to a comprehensive response to the issues the field faces as it approaches what may well be or not a crossroads A website devoted to extending discussion around the book in creative and disjunctive ways
