Abraham Lincoln (Classic Reprint) Ernest Foster, 2015-07-14 Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln EF ore a log fire there sits a boy between eight and nine years old In front of him is a rough slab of wood in his hand is a short stick which now and again he holds in the embers and when the point of it is charred he carefully forms letters and words with it on the board Then after he has thus covered the whole surface he shaves off the writing with a knife and begins again The little lad is Abraham Lincoln and it is

with such strange substitutes for pencil and slate as these that he who in course of time will become President of the United States is teaching himself penmanship Let us glance at the humble home and the surroundings of Abraham at this time then we shall be better able to understand how it was that he was occupied in the way we have seen About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Complete Works of Abraham Lincoln Abraham Lincoln, 2015-07-11 Excerpt from The Complete Works of Abraham Lincoln Comprising His Speeches Letters State Papers and Miscellaneous Writings This added a vast amount of private material which had not come within the sphere of their official knowledge and added the charming personal element to the works of the great statesman When Colonel Lincoln requested them to compile his father's writings and freely transferred to them all his legal rights as his father's heir to protection by copyright he at once made their collection the standard edition for all time and rendered it impossible for any unauthorized publisher to successfully compete with them by issuing any edition which could have even the semblance of being complete New Material The eleven years which have elapsed since the first edition of this work was issued have but served to augment the honor esteem and love in which the people of America have ever held the Great War President Naturally this national attitude has resulted in bringing to light a large amount of manuscript material much of great historical and biographical value which inevitably escaped even such conscientious workers as Mr Nieolay and Colonel Hay About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections
