Natural Language Processing for Historical Texts Michael Piotrowski, 2022-05-31 More and more historical texts are becoming available in digital form Digitization of paper documents is motivated by the aim of preserving cultural heritage and making it more accessible both to laypeople and scholars As digital images cannot be searched for text digitization projects increasingly strive to create digital text which can be searched and otherwise automatically processed in addition to facsimiles Indeed the emerging field of digital humanities heavily relies on the availability of digital text for its studies Together with the increasing availability of historical texts in digital form there is a growing interest in applying natural language processing NLP methods and tools to historical texts However the specific linguistic properties of historical texts the lack of standardized orthography in particular pose special challenges for NLP This book aims to give an introduction to NLP for historical texts and an overview of the state of the art in this field The book starts with an overview of methods for the acquisition of historical texts scanning and OCR discusses text encoding and annotation schemes and presents examples of corpora of historical texts in a variety of languages The book then discusses specific methods such as creating part of speech taggers for historical languages or handling spelling variation A final chapter analyzes the relationship between NLP and the digital humanities Certain recently emerging textual genres such as SMS social media and chat messages or newsgroup and forum postings share a number of properties with historical texts for example nonstandard orthography and grammar and profuse use of abbreviations The methods and techniques required for the effective processing of historical texts are thus also of interest for research in other domains Table of Contents Introduction NLP and Digital Humanities Spelling in Historical Texts Acquiring Historical Texts Text Encoding and Annotation Schemes Handling Spelling Variation NLP Tools for Historical Languages Historical Corpora Conclusion Bibliography

In Search of Coherence Marcel Jousse, 2016-11-10 Marcel Jousse's anthropology of mimism is a plea for a change of civilization Our present day Western civilization has decomposed the human being into a mind soul spirit and a body put writing as the apex of this human's expression and set this human as the conqueror of his world Jousse pleads for a threefold re composition a human compound expressing himself as a whole and in exchange with a cosmos that he mimes and infuses with consciousness What is needed is an evolution neither progressive nor regressive but an evolution in depth reconnecting the new with the old in short coherence
