Complex Predicates Cross Linguistic Perspectives On Event Structure:

Complex Predicates Mengistu Amberber, Brett Baker, Mark Harvey, 2010-04-22 Complex predicates are multipredicational but monoclausal structures They have proven problematic for linguistic theory particularly for proposed distinctions between the lexicon morphology and syntax This volume focuses on the mapping from morphosyntactic structures to event structure and in particular the constraints on possible mappings The volume showcases the coverb construction a complex predicate construction which though widespread has received little attention in the literature The coverb construction contrasts with more familiar serial verb constructions The coverb construction generally maps only to event structures like those of monomorphemic verbs whereas serial verb constructions map to a range of event structures differing from those of monomorphemic verbs The volume coverage is truly cross linguistic including languages from Australia Papua New Guinea Southeast Asia the Indian subcontinent East Africa and North America The volume establishes a new arena of research in event structure syntax and cross linguistic typology

Perspectives on Language Structure and Language Change Lars Heltoft, Iván Igartua, Brian D. Joseph, Kirsten Jeppesen Kragh, Lene Schøsler, 2019-06-15 This volume centers on three important theoretical concepts for the study of language change and the ways in which language structure emerges and turns into new structure reanalysis actualization and indexicality Reanalysis is a part of ongoing everyday language use a process through which language is reproduced and changed Actualization refers to the processes through which a reanalyzed structure spreads throughout single communities and society Indexicality covers the way in which parts of a linguistic system can point to other parts of the system both syntagmatically and paradigmatically The inclusion of indexicality leads to fine grained analysis in morphology word order and constructional syntax

Enfield, Bernard Comrie, 2015-03-30 The studies in this book represent the rich diverse and substantial research being conducted today in the linguistics of Mainland Southeast Asia The chapters cover a broad scope Several studies address questions of language relatedness often challenging conventional assumptions about the status of language contact as an explanatory factor in accounting for linguistic similarities Several address the question of Mainland Southeast Asia as a linguistic area exploring new ways to imagine and define the boundaries and indeed the boundedness of a Mainland Southeast Asia area Two contributions rethink the received notion of the sesquisyllable with new empirical and theoretical angles And a set of chapters explores topics in the morphology and syntax of the region s languages sometimes challenging orthodox assumptions and claims about what a typical language of Mainland Southeast Asia is like Written by leading researchers in the field and with a substantial overview of current knowledge and new directions by the volume editors N J Enfield and Bernard Comrie this book will serve as an authoritative source on where the linguistics of Mainland Southeast Asia is at and where it is heading

Noun-Based Constructions in the History of Portuguese and Spanish Patrícia Amaral, Manuel Delicado Cantero, 2022-04-28 This book explores syntactic and semantic change in three types of construction in Spanish and Portuguese i complex determiner phrases with clausal adjunction el hecho de or o facto de ii complex prepositions complementizers and complex connectives sin embargo de sem embargo de so b pena de and iii complex predicates containing light verbs dar consejo conselho de While these constructions are syntactically different they are all clause taking complex expressions containing a noun followed by the functional preposition de of This book is the first work to use a systematic comparative corpus study to explore these expressions together this approach allows individual changes to be distinguished from general changes as well as emphasizing the chronological clustering of changes that involve complex constructions in both languages By studying mechanisms of language change and their outcomes in two sister languages Patrícia Amaral and Manuel Delicado Cantero address questions such as How do complex constructions evolve How does the meaning of the noun change when considered in isolation and when compared to the meaning of the whole construction And how do syntactic categories change over time This study of two closely related languages reveals distinct developments occurring in parallel and provides a crucial test case for theories of language change

Granularity in the Verbalization of Events and Objects Katerina Stathi, 2023-08-15 The study departs from the observation that in
