Reading Comprehension Kathryn I. Matthew, Kimberly Kimbell-Lopez, 2003 Librarians inservice teachers and preservice teachers will discover that Reading Comprehension Books and Strategies for the Elementary Curriculum provides easy access to a variety of reading comprehension strategies framed in the context of their curriculum content By including current children s literature on a variety of topics this book also serves to introduce librarians and teachers to trade books for enhancing their content area curriculum Strategies for Powerful Comprehension Instruction: It Takes More Than Mentioning! Holly Diehl,Diane Nettles,2010-05-01

Understanding text is key to students learning success This notebook developed for grades K 8 provides explicit instructions for teaching six fundamental comprehension strategies predicting making connections visualizing questioning inferring and summarizing Great for novice experienced and content area teachers this resource includes templates and tools as well as instructions on how to incorporate these strategies into a core curriculum 296pp plus Teacher Resource CD Writing Strategies for the Common Core Hillary Wolfe,2013-12-18 Middle school students must be able to write explanatory informational argument and narrative genre pieces and respond to literature both for standardized tests and more importantly real world writing With a balanced literacy approach Wolfe provides core instruction teaching strategies and mini lessons on these text types each of which can be delivered in a four to six week time period Each mini lesson includes applicable Common Core Standards materials lists overviews planning tips procedures including modeling guided practice and independent practice opportunities reading connections formative assessments and reproducible graphic organizers for scaffolding Prerequisite skill overviews and rubrics both analytic for formative assessments and holistic for summative assessments are also provided for each genre unit to simplify your teaching and ensure student success Language Arts, Grades 3-5 Laurie E. Westphal,2007 Differentiating Instruction With Menus offers teachers everything they need to create a student centered learning environment based on choice Addressing the four main subject areas language arts math science and social studies and the major concepts taught within these areas these books provide a number of different types of menus that elementary aged students can use to select exciting products that they will develop so teachers can assess what has been learned instead of using a traditional worksheet format Each book contains attractive reproducible menus each based on the levels of Bloom s revised taxonomy for students to use to guide them in making decisions as to which products they will develop after studying a major concept or unit Using creative and challenging choices found in Tic Tac Toe Menus List Menus 2 5 8 Menus Baseball Menus and Game Show Menus students will look forward to sharing their newfound knowledge throughout the year Also included are specific guidelines for products rubrics for assessing student products and teacher introduction pages for each menu This book includes menus that teach students about language arts genres mechanics and novels Sentence Comprehension David J. Townsend,Thomas G. Bever,2001 Using sentence comprehension as a case study for all of cognitive science David Townsend and Thomas Bever offer an integration of two major approaches the symbolic computational and the associative connectionist The symbolic computational approach emphasizes the formal manipulation of symbols that underlies creative aspects of language behavior The associative connectionist approach captures the intuition that most behaviors consist of accumulated habits The authors argue that the sentence is the natural level at which associative and symbolic information merge during comprehension The authors develop and support an analysis by synthesis model that integrates associative and symbolic information in sentence comprehension This integration resolves problems each approach faces when considered independently The authors review classic and contemporary symbolic and associative theories of sentence comprehension and show how recent developments in syntactic theory fit well with the integrated analysis by synthesis model They offer analytic experimental and neurological evidence for their model and discuss its implications for broader issues in cognitive science including the logical necessity of an integration of symbolic and connectionist approaches in the field
