Telling Border Life Stories Donna M Kabalen de Bichara, 2013-05-21 Voices from the borderlands push against boundaries in more ways than one as Donna M Kabalen de Bichara ably demonstrates in this investigation into the twentieth century autobiographical writing of four women of Mexican origin who lived in the American Southwest Until recently little attention has been paid to the writing of the women included in this study As Kabalen de Bichara notes it is precisely such historical exclusion of texts written by Mexican American women that gives particular significance to the reexamination of the five autobiographical works that provide the focus for this in depth study Early Life and Education and Dew on the Thorn by Jovita González 1904 83 deal with life experiences in Texas and were likely written between 1926 and the 1940s both texts were published in 1997 Romance of a Little Village Girl first published in 1955 focuses on life in New Mexico and was written by Cleofas Jaramillo 1878 1956 when the author was in her seventies A Beautiful Cruel Country by Eva Antonio Wilbur Cruce 1904 98 introduces the reader to history and a way of life that developed in the cultural space of Arizona Created over a ten year period this text was published in 1987 just eleven years before the author's death Hoyt Street by Mary Helen Ponce b 1938 began as a research paper during the period of the autobiographer's undergraduate studies 1974 80 and was published in its present form in 1993 These border autobiographies can be understood as attempts on the part of the Mexican American female autobiographers to put themselves into the text and thus write their experiences into existence

Contemporary U.S. Latinx Literature in Spanish Amrita Das, Kathryn Quinn-Sánchez, Michele

Shaul, 2018-11-19 U S Latinx Literature in Spanish remains an understudied field despite its large and vibrant corpus This is partly due to the erroneous impression that this literature is only written in English and partly due to traditional educational programs focusing on English texts to include non Spanish speakers and non Latinx students This has created a vacuum in research about Latinx literary production in Spanish leaving the contemporary field wide open for exploration This volume fills this space by bringing contemporary U S Latinx literature in Spanish to the forefront of the field The essays focus on literary production post 1960 and examine texts by authors from different backgrounds writing from the U S providing readers with an opportunity to explore new texts in Spanish within U S Latinx literature and a departure point for starting a meaningful critical discourse about what it means to write and publish in Spanish in the U S Through exploring literary production in a language that is both emotionally and politically charged for authors the academia and the U S this book challenges and enhances our understanding of the term Americas
