Cannabis Britannica Empire Trade And Prohibition 1800 1928:

Cannabis Britannica James H. Mills, 2005-03-24 The role of government in the regulation of cannabis is as hotly debated now as it was a century ago In this lively study James Mills explores the historical background of cannabis legislation arguing that the drive towards prohibition grew out of the politics of empire rather than scientific or rational assessment of the drug's use and effects

Cannabis Britannica James H. Mills, 2003-09-11 Cannabis Britannica explores the historical origins of the UK's legislation and regulations on cannabis preparations before 1928 It draws on published and unpublished sources from the seventeenth century onwards from archives in the UK and India to show how the history of cannabis and the British before the twentieth century was bound up with imperialism James Mills argues that until the 1900s most of the information and experience gathered by British sources were drawn from colonial contexts as imperial administrators governed and observed populations where use of cannabis was extensive and established This is most obvious in the 1890s when British anti opium campaigners in the House of Commons seized on the issue of Government of India excise duties on the cannabis trade in Asia in order to open up another front in their attacks on imperial administration The result was that cannabis preparations became a matter of concern in Parliament which accordingly established the Indian Hemp Drugs Commission The story in the twentieth century is of the momentum behind moves to include cannabis substances in domestic law and in international treaties The latter was a matter of the diplomatic politics of imperialism as Britain sought to defend its cannabis revenues in India against American and Egyptian interests The domestic story focuses on the coming together of the police the media and the pharmaceutical industry to form misunderstandings of cannabis that forced it onto the Poisons Schedule despite the misgivings of the Home Office and of key medical professionals The book is the first full history of the origins of the moments when cannabis first became subjected to laws and regulations in Britain

Locating the Medical Rohan Deb Roy, Guy N.A. Attewell, 2017-11-21 This volume interrogates the foundational categories that have come to define medical science in modern South Asia It seeks to probe issues such as what constitutes the medical in which context and who defines it This is achieved through case studies that range from the nineteenth to twenty first centuries from colonial Bengal and British Burma to present day Andaman Islands and Ladakh By examining the close interactions between political authorities corporeal knowledge and objects of governance in a sustained manner the domains of the medical and the non medical are revealed to be more blurred and porous than apparent This provides us with new perspectives on the co production of medicine and social worlds by actors and agencies in specific times and places

God on High Laurie Cozad, 2018-06-20 God on High examines cannabis based religious groups in Canada and the United States These religious groups are on the rise as cannabis use is further decriminalized or legalized In examining these groups Laurie Cozad explores the triangular relationships between cannabis religion and the law and the ways in which the shifting discourse of medical science impacts this trio

Opium's Orphans P. E. Caquet, 2022-07-06 Upending all we know about the war on drugs a history of the anti narcotics movement s origins evolution and questionable effectiveness Opium s Orphans is the first full history of drug prohibition and the war on drugs A no holds barred but balanced account it shows that drug suppression was born of historical accident not rational design The war on drugs did not originate in Europe or the United States and even less with President Nixon but in China Two Opium Wars followed by Western attempts to atone for them gave birth to an anti narcotics order that has come to span the globe But has the war on drugs succeeded As opioid deaths and cartel violence run rampant contestation becomes more vocal and marijuana is slated for legalization Opium s Orphans proposes that it is time to go back to the drawing board Power and Illicit Drugs in the Global South Maziyar Ghiabi,2020-04-28 More than a hundred years have passed since the adoption of the first prohibitionist laws on drugs Increasingly the edifice of international drug control and laws is vacillating under pressures of reform Scholarship on drugs history and policy has had a tendency to look at the issue mostly in the Western hemisphere of the globe or to privilege Western narratives of drugs and drugs policy This volume instead turns this approach upside down and makes an intellectual attempt to redefine the subject of drugs in the Global South Opium heroin cannabis hashish methamphetamines and khat are among the drugs discussed in the contributions to the volume which spans from Sub Saharan Africa to Southeast Asia including the Middle East North Africa Latin America and the Indian Subcontinent The volume also makes a powerful case for an interdisciplinary approach to the study of drugs by juxtaposing the work of historians political scientists geographers anthropologists and criminologists Ultimately this edited volume is a rich and diverse collection of new case studies which opens up venues for further research This book was originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly Consuming Habits: Global and Historical Perspectives on How Cultures Define Drugs Jordan Goodman,Andrew Sherratt,Paul E. Lovejoy,2014-04-08 Covering a wide range of substances including opium cocaine coffee tobacco kola and betelnut from prehistory to the present day this new edition has been extensively updated with an updated bibliography and two new chapters on cannabis and khat Consuming Habits is the perfect companion for all those interested in how different cultures have defined drugs across the ages Psychoactive substances have been central to the formation of civilizations the definition of cultural identities and the growth of the world economy The labelling of these substances as legal or illegal has diverted attention away from understanding their important cultural and historical role This collection explores the rich analytical category of psychoactive substances from challenging historical and anthropological perspectives Anxieties, Fear and Panic in Colonial Settings Harald Fischer-Tiné,2017-01-23 This book argues that the history of colonial empires has been shaped to a considerable extent by negative emotions such as anxiety fear and embarrassment as well as by the regular occurrence of panics The case studies it assembles examine the various ways in which panics and anxieties were generated in imperial situations and how they shook up the dynamics between seemingly all powerful colonizers and the apparently defenceless colonized Drawing from examples of the British Dutch and German colonial experience the volume sketches out some of the main areas such as disease native savagery or sexual transgression that generated panics or created anxieties in colonial settings and analyses the most common varieties of practical discursive and epistemic strategies adopted by the colonisers to curb the perceived threats Intoxication

Thomas Thurnell-Read, Mark Monaghan, 2023-01-01 What images come to mind when you read the word intoxication What behaviour do you associate with the word drunk When you hear the word drug what images do you recall This textbook provides an essential and thorough grounding in debates about the role of intoxication in contemporary society from social and cultural perspectives It examines intoxication in the broadest sense as including both legal and illegal substances and both culturally accepted and socially stigmatised practices Given the pace of recent changes in policy and practice from the increasingly common legalisation of cannabis to the recent trend of sobriety amongst adolescents and young adults this book stands out by offering both a thorough historical and theoretical overview and a topical and forward looking exploration of current debates It adopts a multi scale approach to examine wider patterns of change so it considers the subjective experiences of the role intoxication plays in the lives of individuals and groups in the construction of diverse identities and how this differs by age gender and ethnicity The authors pay particular attention to the way in which the state justifies interventions based on moral health and criminal justice discourses and also consider the role played by other individuals and institutions not least the mass media and the alcohol industry in propagating and challenging common sense explanations of intoxication It speaks to undergraduates master s students and above with a range of pedagogic features and offers insights into policy and practice A History of Alcohol and Drugs in Modern South Asia Harald Fischer-Tiné, Jana

Tschurennev, 2014-01-03 At the beginning of the 21st century alcoholism transnational drug trafficking and drug addiction constitute major problems in various South Asian countries The production circulation and consumption of intoxicating substances created and responded to social upheavals in the region and had widespread economic political and cultural repercussions on an international level This book looks at the cultural social and economic history of intoxicants in South Asia and analyses the role that alcohol and drugs have played in the region The book explores the linkages between changing meanings of intoxicating substances the making of and contestations over colonial and national regimes of regulation economics and practices and experiences of consumption It shows the development of current meanings of intoxicants in South Asia in terms of politics cultural norms and identity formation and the way in which the history of drugs and alcohol is enmeshed in the history of modern empires and nation states even in a country in which a staunch teetotaler and active anti drug crusader like Mohandas Gandhi is presented as the father of the nation Primarily a historical analysis the book also includes perspectives from Modern Indology and Cultural Anthropology and situates developments in South Asia in wider imperial and global contexts It is of interest to scholars working on the social and cultural history of alcohol and drugs South Asian Studies and Global History
