Good Enough to Eat Jennifer Brown, 2010 Fat and the Body in the Long Nineteenth Century Amy Shaw, Lynn Kennedy, 2024-12-16 In the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the body was a key focus of discourse Fat and the Body in the Long Nineteenth Century animates discussion and analyses of fatness highlighting how corporeal expectations fit into larger social systems and showing how interpretations have shifted over time This collection examines a host of primary sources including literature art medical treatises journalism political cartoons soldiers letters home and popular fiction to identify trends in how fat was perceived and promoted in the English speaking world over the long nineteenth century Divided into four thematic sections the book addresses epistemologies artistic and literary representations the turn towards quantification and measurement and the connections to imperialism and colonialism It explores the complex debate about the meaning of fat and its signalling of health beauty moral strength and class status The book shows how contemporary presentations and discussions of fat offer insights into ideals of gender and race and the processes of imperialism and of professionalization in the social sciences and medicine By tracing how debates shifted over time the book ultimately reveals that there was no universal interpretation of fat as a positive or negative characteristic throughout the nineteenth century

Gender and Contemporary Horror in Film Samantha Holland, Robert Shail, Steven Gerrard, 2019-03-13 This edited collection focuses on gender and contemporary horror in film examining how and if representations of gender in horror have changed B-Movie Gothic Justin Edwards, 2018-05-15 Leading philosophers reconsider the philosophical destiny of education

Brazilian Horror Cinema in the Twenty-First Century Stephanie Dennison, Laura Loguercio Cánepa, 2025-02-25 Brazil's pressing socio political questions as seen through the country's horror film influenced audio visual production between 2008 and 2022 Since the 2008 release of Embodiment of Evil the third instalment in the Coffin Joe trilogy which began with At Midnight I'll Take Your Soul Brazil's audiovisual industry has been producing an increasing number of unsettling often violent and frequently dystopian films reflecting the wide ranging social cultural environmental and economic problems the country is facing This edited volume by scholars from Brazil the United Kingdom and the United States discusses a broad selection of Brazilian audio visual productions released between 2008 and 2022 which through their use of aesthetic and narrative devices borrowed from horror cinema shed light on the country's pressing socio political questions Mostly by first time directors these productions bear witness to a second Golden Age of Brazilian horror cinema reflected in new specialised festivals such as CineFantasy RioFan CRASH and Fantaspoa and ultimately serve to illustrate in audio visual form the tensions at the heart of Brazilian society in the second decade of the twenty first century

Personified Body Parts in Cinema, Literature, and Visual Culture Gilad Padva,Yair Koren-Maimon,2025-04-17 Personified Body Parts in Cinema Literature and Visual Culture investigates the power of personifying body parts in cinema television visual culture literature erotica folklore and mystique Culturally socially and poetically exposing hidden aspects and subtleties of human existentialism this book vigorously questions and problematizes numerous artistic aesthetic technological na ve and macabre manipulations of body parts for various purposes A diverse team of authors explore how scribing human traits to limbs eyes brains genitalia hearts and other inner organs is grotesque and aesthetic repealing and appealing intimidating and intimate rude and enjoyable material and spiritual surprising and mundane Personified organs are interrelated with bodily integrity visceral aesthetics distorted nature social anxiety and acceptability cultural classifications and hierarchies and dissident innovativeness andradicalism This interdisciplinary volume involves body studies cinema television and media studies literature studies cultural intercultural and countercultural studies mythology and folklore studies gender sexuality trans and queer studies ethnicities and postcolonialism and art history Haunted Histories and Troubled Pasts Amanda Howell,Stephanie Green,2024-04-18 Haunted Histories and Troubled Pasts speaks to how a transnational array of recent screen entertainments participate through horror in public discourses of history the social and creative work of reshaping popular understanding of our world through the lens of the past Contemporary film and television and popular screen cultures more generally are distinguished by their many and varied engagements with history including participation in worldwide movements to reconcile past losses and injuries with present legacies The chapters in this collection address themselves to 21st century screen horror s participation in this widespread fascination with and concern for the historical its recurrent reimagining of the relation between the past and present which is part of its inheritance from the Gothic They are concerned with the historical work of horror s spectral occupations its visceral threats of violence and its capacity for exploring repressed social identities as well as the ruptures and impositions of colonization and nationhood Trauma is a key theme in this book examined through themes of war and genocide ghostly invasions institutionalized abuse apocalyptic threat and environmental destruction These persistent fearful reimaginings of the past can take many lurid sometimes tritely generic forms Together these chapters explore and reflect upon horror s ability to speak through them to the unspoken of history to push the boundaries and probe the fault lines and ideological impositions of received historical narratives while reminding us that history and the historical imagination persist as sites of contention Monstrous Nature Robin L. Murray,Joseph K. Heumann,2016-10-01 Godzilla a traditional natural monster and representation of cinema s subgenre of natural attack also provides a cautionary symbol of the dangerous consequences of mistreating the natural world monstrous nature on the attack Horror films such as Godzilla invite an exploration of the complexities of a monstrous nature that humanity both creates and embodies Robin L Murray and Joseph K Heumann demonstrate how the horror film and its offshoots can often be understood in relation to a monstrous nature that has evolved either deliberately or by accident and that generates fear in humanity as both character and audience This connection between fear and the natural world opens up possibilities for ecocritical readings often missing from research on monstrous nature the environment and the horror film Organized in relation to four recurring environmental themes in films that construct nature as a monster anthropomorphism human ecology evolution and gendered landscapes the authors apply ecocritical perspectives to reveal the multiple ways nature is constructed as monstrous or in which the natural world itself constructs monsters This interdisciplinary approach to film studies fuses cultural theological and scientific critiques to explore when and why nature becomes monstrous
