Murder Case S S Van Dine,2020-05-22 It was in the cold bleak autumn following the spectacular Dragon murder case that Philo Vance was confronted with what was probably the subtlest and most diabolical criminal problem of his career Unlike his other cases this mystery was one of poisoning But it was not an ordinary poisoning case it involved far too clever a technique and was thought out to far too many decimal points to be ranked with even such famous crimes as the Cordelia Botkin Molineux Maybrick Buchanan Bowers and Carlyle Harris cases The designation given to it by the newspapers namely the Casino murder case was technically a misnomer although Kinkaid s famous gambling Casino in West 73rd Street played a large part in it In fact the first sinister episode in this notorious crime actually occurred beside the high stake roulette table in the Gold Room of the Casino and the final episode of the tragedy was enacted in Kinkaid s walnut paneled Jacobean office just off the main gambling salon Incidentally I may say that that last terrible scene will haunt me to my dying day and send cold shivers racing up and down my spine whenever I let my mind dwell on its terrifying details I have been through many shocking and unnerving situations with Vance during the course of his criminal investigations but never have I experienced one that affected me as did that terrific and fatal d nouement that came so suddenly so unexpectedly in the gaudy environment of that famous gambling rendezvous
