Changing Female Literacy Practices Algeria:

Changing Female Literacy Practices in Algeria Anne Laaredj-Campbell, 2015-12-10 From an ethnological standpoint this study contends that the construction and implementation of a gender based literacy program that empowers adult education learners in rural or semi rural hybrid areas in Algeria must consider the context of the Arabic Islamic tradition In her research Anne Laaredj Campbell examines the educational situation of women in the Haut Plateau by using methods derived from the field of ethnology The author endeavors to take a look at the literacy practices and their theoretical implications for empowering women in Algeria To date there are no empirical studies on adult female literacy in Algeria that focus on the cultural construction of gender and empowerment A gender approach to education is committed to establishing reasons for the deficiencies of literacy among women

Handbook of Literacy in Africa R. Malatesha Joshi, Catherine A.

McBride, Bestern Kaani, Gad Elbeheri, 2023-07-28 This volume highlights the shortcomings concerning literacy development in Africa and collates the current available literature based on empirical research in various countries in a coherent manner Further emphasized is how the current research can guide practical information to improve the literacy situation in Africa The research studies will encompass various fields such as linguistics neurosciences and education and will provide future research directions and instructional recommendations to improve the literacy situation in Africa
