philosophy Paisley Livingston explores the philosophical value of cinema As a case study for his intentionalist theory of authorship and interpretation he focuses on Ingmar Bergman s cinematic explorations of motivated irrationality inauthenticity and self knowledge Cinema, Philosophy, Bergman Paisley Livingston, 2009-07-02 The increasingly popular idea that cinematic fictions can do philosophy raises some difficult questions Who is actually doing the philosophizing Is it the philosophical commentator who reads general arguments or theories into the stories conveyed by a film Could it be the film maker or a group of collaborating film makers who raise and try to answer philosophical questions with a film Is there something about the experience of films that is especially suited to the stimulation of worthwhile philosophical reflections In the first part of this book Paisley Livingston surveys positions and arguments surrounding the cinema s philosophical value He raises criticisms of bold theses in this area and defends a moderate view of film s possible contributions to philosophy In the second part of the book he defends an intentionalist approach that focuses on the film makers philosophical background assumptions sources and aims Livingston outlines intentionalist interpretative principles as well as an account of authorship in cinema The third part of the book exemplifies this intentionalist approach with reference to the work of Ingmar Bergman Livingston explores the connection between Bergman s work and the Swedish director s primary philosophical source a treatise in philosophical psychology authored by the Finnish philosopher Eino Kaila Bergman proclaimed that reading this book was a tremendous philosophical experience for him and that he built on this ground With reference to materials in the newly created Ingmar Bergman archive Livingston shows how Bergman took up Kaila s topics in his cinematic explorations of motivated irrationality inauthenticity and the problem of self knowledge A Companion to Ingmar Bergman philosophizing Many recent works in film philosophy adopting the approach identified with the term film as philosophy have considered film as capable of doing philosophy Focused on the basic relationship between film and filmgoer the proposed method is founded on the concept of the film world Combining Merleau Ponty s and Ric ur s philosophies and reconsidering Goodman s theory of worldmaking the film world becomes the hermeneutic horizon from which film philosophical thought can emerge The book shows how Ric urian methodology has the potential to provide a valuable resource for film studies by inviting scholars to consider film interpretation in terms of film world hermeneutics New Philosophies of Film Robert Sinnerbrink,2011-10-13 This is a critical exploration of analytic and Continental philosophies of film which puts film philosophy into practice with detailed discussions of three filmmakers The book includes philosophical readings of three key contemporary filmmakers Malick Lynch and Von Trier It also features links to online resources guides to further reading and a filmography

Ingmar Bergman, Cinematic Philosopher Irving Singer,2009-09-18 The development of themes motifs and techniques in Bergman s films from the first intimations in the early work to the consummate resolutions in the final movies Known for their repeating motifs and signature tropes the films of Ingmar Bergman also contain extensive variation and development In these reflections on Bergman s artistry and thought Irving Singer discerns distinctive themes in Bergman s filmmaking from first intimations in the early work to consummate resolutions in the later movies Singer demonstrates that while Bergman s output is not philosophy on celluloid it attains an expressive and purely aesthetic truthfulness that can be considered philosophical in a broader sense Through analysis of both narrative and filmic effects Singer probes Bergman s mythmaking and his reliance upon the magic inherent in his cinematic techniques Singer traces throughout the evolution of Bergman s ideas about life and death and about the possibility of happiness and interpersonal love In the overtly self referential films that he wrote or directed The Best Intentions Fanny and Alexander Sunday s Children as well as the less obviously autobiographical ones including Wild Strawberries The Seventh Seal and the triad that begins with Through a Glass Darkly Bergman investigates problems in his existence and frequently reverts to childhood memories In such movies as Smiles of a Summer Night Scenes from a Marriage and Saraband Bergman draws upon his mature experience and depicts the troubled relationships between men who are often weak and women who are made to suffer by the damaged men with whom they live In Persona Cries and Whispers and other works his experiments with the camera are uniquely masterful Inspecting the panorama of Bergman s art Singer shows how the endless search for human contact motivates the content of his films and reflects Bergman s profound perspective on the world

Cinema and Agamben Henrik Gustafsson,Asbjorn Gronstad,2015-08-27 Cinema and Agamben brings together a group of established scholars of film and visual culture to explore the nexus between the moving image and the influential work of Italian philosopher Giorgio Agamben Including two original texts by Agamben himself published here for the first time in English translation these essays facilitate a unique multidisciplinary conversation that fundamentally rethinks the theory and praxis of cinema In their resourceful analyses of the work of artists such as David Claerbout Jean Luc Godard Philippe Grandrieux Michael Haneke Jean Rouch and others the authors put to use a range of key concepts from Agamben s rich body of work like biopolitics de creation gesture potentiality and profanation Sustaining the eminently interdisciplinary scope of Agamben s writing the essays all bespeak the importance of Agamben s thought for forging new beginnings in film theory and for remedying the elegiac proclamations of the death of cinema so characteristic of the current moment
