Dialogism Bakhtin And His World New Accents:

Dialogism Michael Holquist, 2003-12-16 Holquist's masterly study draws on all of Bakhtin's known writings providing a comprehensive account of his achievement. Widely acknowledged as an exceptional guide to Bakhtin and dialogics, this book now includes a new introduction, concluding chapter and a fully updated bibliography. He argues that Bakhtin's work gains coherence through his commitment to the concept of dialogue, examining Bakhtin's dialogues with theorists such as Saussure, Freud, Marx and Lukacs, as well as other thinkers whose connection with Bakhtin has previously been ignored. Dialogism also includes dialogic readings of major literary texts: Mary Shelley's Frankenstein, Gogol's The Notes of a Madman and Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby, which provide another dimension of dialogue with dialogue. Bakhtin Between East and West

Karine Zbinden, 2017-12-02 Mikhail Bakhtin 1895-1975 has had an enormous influence on literary studies and cultural theory. Bakhtin between East and West: Cross Cultural Transmission looks beyond the concepts of carnival and dialogue and traces for the first time the transformation of the Bakhtin Circle's thought from its introduction to the West in Julia Kristeva's seminal late 1960s theory of intertextuality through Tzvetan Todorov's landmark study and on to contemporary interpretations. The notion of sociality in all its problematic complexity provides the red thread guiding us through this historical and thematic examination of Western and Russian Bakhtin studies. As a critical evaluation of Bakhtin scholarship across various cultures and a celebration of the vigour of the Circle's legacy, this is an invaluable resource for scholars and students with an interest in Bakhtin and critical theory. Using Social Theory in Educational Research Mark Dressman, 2009-05-07 Using Social Theory in Educational Research is organised to help practising educators and novice researchers who have little familiarity with social theory to be introduced to major schools of social theory, their basic concepts and their general applicability to educational issues. Develop an understanding of and appreciation for its potential to improve their own practice, gain practical insight into how theory can function as a warrant or support for data interpretation through the use of multiple practical examples, learn how to integrate theory into their own work more effectively. Selected Contents: 1. Getting Theoretical 2. An Illustrated Tour of How Theory Works and Doesn't Work in Educational Research 3. Framing Research Theoretically Part One: Planning and Data Collection 4. Framing Research Theoretically 5. When Research Meets Research. The Rebirth of Dialogue James P. Zappen, 2012-02-01 Dialogue has suffered a long eclipse in the history of philosophy and the history of rhetoric but has enjoyed a rebirth in the work of Hans Georg Gadamer, Martin Buber and Mikhail Bakhtin. Among twentieth-century figures, Bakhtin took a special interest in the history of the dialogue form. This book explores Bakhtin's understanding of Socratic dialogue and the notion that dialogue is not simply a way of persuading others to accept our ideas but a way of holding ourselves and others accountable for all of our thoughts, words and actions. In supporting this premise, Bakhtin challenges the traditions of argument and persuasion handed down from Plato and Aristotle and he offers as an alternative a dialogical rhetoric that restructures the traditional relationship between speakers and listeners writers and readers as a mutual testing contesting and creating of ideas The author suggests that Bakhtin's dialogical rhetoric is not restricted to oral discourse but is possible in any medium including written graphic and digital Comparative Literature and Comparative Cultural Studies Steven Tötösy de Zepetnek, 2003 Articles in this volume focus on theories and histories of comparative literature and the field of comparative cultural studies Contributors are Kwaku Asante Darko on African postcolonial literature Hendrik Birus on Goethe's concept of world literature Amiya Dev on comparative literature in India Marian Galik on interliterariness Ernst Grabovszki on globalization new media and world literature Jan Walsh Hokenson on the culture of the context Marko Juvan on literariness Karl S Y Kao on metaphor Kristof Jacek Kozak on comparative literature in Slovenia Manuela Mourao on comparative literature in the USA Jola Skulj on cultural identity Slobodan Sucur on period styles and theory Peter Swirski on popular and highbrow literature Antony Tatlow on textual anthropology William H Thornton on East West power politics in cultural studies Steven Totosy on comparative cultural studies and Xiaoyi Zhou and Q S Tong on comparative literature in China The papers are followed by an index and a bibliography of scholarship in comparative literature and cultural studies compiled by Steven Totosy Steven Aoun and Wendy C Nielsen Otherness and Identity in the Gospel of John Sung Uk Lim, 2020-12-23 In this book Sung Uk Lim examines the narrative construction of identity and otherness through ongoing interactions between Jesus and the so called others as represented by the minor characters in the Gospel of John This study reconfigures the otherness of the minor characters in order to reconstruct the identity of Jesus beyond the exclusive binary of identity and otherness The recent trends in Johannine scholarship are deeply entrenched in a dialectical framework of inclusion and exclusion perpetuating positive portrayals of Jesus and negative portrayals of the minor characters Read in this light Jesus is portrayed as a superior omniscient and omnipotent character whereas minor characters are depicted as inferior uncomprehending and powerless At the root of such portrayals lies the belief that the Johannine dualistic Weltanschauung warrants such a sharp differentiation between Jesus and the minor characters Lim argues to the contrary that the multiple constructions of otherness deriving from the minor characters make Jesus identity vulnerable to a constant process of transformation Consequently John's minor characters actually challenge and destabilize Johannine hierarchical dualism within a both and framework The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 2020-02-27 This bibliography first published in 1957 provides citations to North American academic literature on Europe Central Europe the Balkans the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union Organised by discipline it covers the arts humanities social sciences life sciences and technology

Tenkō: Cultures of Political Conversion in Transwar Japan Irena Hayter, George T. Sipos, Mark Williams, 2021-06-17 This book approaches the concept of tenkō political conversion as a response to the global crisis of interwar modernity as opposed to a distinctly Japanese experience in postwar debates Tenkō connotes the expressions of ideological conversion performed by members of the Japanese Communist Party starting in 1933 whereby they renounced Marxism and expressed support for Japan's imperial expansion on the continent. Although tenk has a significant presence in Japan's postwar intellectual and literary histories, this contributed volume is one of the first in English language scholarship to approach the phenomenon. International perspectives from both established and early career scholars show tenk as inseparable from the global politics of empire, deeply marked by an age of mechanical reproduction, mediatization, and the manipulation of language. Chapters draw on a wide range of interdisciplinary methodologies from political theory and intellectual history to literary studies. In this way, tenk is explored through new conceptual and analytical frameworks, including questions of gender and the role of affect in politics, implications that render the phenomenon distinctly relevant to the contemporary moment. Tenk: Cultures of Political Conversion in Transwar Japan will prove a valuable resource to students and scholars of Japanese and East Asian history, literature, and politics.

But Their Faces Were All Looking Up Eric M. Vanden Eykel, 2016-12-01 This study of the Protevangelium of James explores the interrelationship of authors, readers, texts, and meaning. Its central aim is to better understand how the process of repetition gave rise to the narratives of the early Christian movement and how that process continued to fuel the creativity and imagination of future generations. Divided into three parts, Vanden Eykel addresses first specific episodes in the life of the Virgin, consisting of Mary's childhood in the Jerusalem temple (PJ 7-9), her spinning thread for the temple veil (PJ 10-12), and Jesus' birth in a cave outside Bethlehem (PJ 17-20). The three episodes present a uniform picture of how the reader's discernment of intertexts can generate new layers of meaning, and that these layers may reveal new aspects of the author's meaning, some of which the author may not have anticipated.

Modernist Time Ecology Jesse Matz, 2018-12-03 A new view of the way modernist fiction writers tried to solve the problem of time. Do our fictions transform time? Do they cultivate the temporal environment? Such was the hope or the fantasy at work in many modernist novels, for which time was not only the major subject but also an object of reparative aspiration. Aimed at a kind of stewardship of time, these fictions constitute a practice of modernist time ecology, an effort to restore those landscapes of time that have been thrown into crisis by modernity. In Modernist Time Ecology, Jesse Matz redefines temporal experimentation in central writers like Proust, Mann, Woolf, Ellison, and Cather, who developed literary forms to cultivate, restore, and enrich the temporal environment. He brings fresh attention to others who best exemplify this ecological motive, arguing that E. M. Forster, J. B. Priestley, and V. S. Naipaul are leading figures in this practice of temporal redress. Matz also reveals how contemporary film, social media, movements, and public service efforts show what has become of the modernist interest in temporal stewardship. Matz combines an array of disciplines, including narrative theory, sociology, phenomenology, cognitive psychology, film studies, queer theory, and environmental studies, to theorize and explain the rationale and the limits to the idea that time might be subject to textual cultivation. Modernist Time Ecology is a deeply interdisciplinary book that changes what we think literature and the arts can do for the world at large.
